UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

July 6, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ✻

---

In this morning's lesson from Romans, Paul wrestles honestly with the weight of his sin and his frequent failures to live the life worthy of Christ. He states, "I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do...who will rescue me from this body of death?" The gospel lesson from Matthew provides words of comfort to those similarly weighed down by life's struggles, as Jesus invites, "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends of Duke Chapel, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

VISITING THE CHAPEL—The Chapel often has weddings booked on Saturdays and Sunday afternoons, especially during the summer months. If a wedding is taking place, visitors will not be permitted inside. Before visiting on a weekend, please call 919-681-9488 to learn when the Chapel will be open to the public.

CHAPEL STAFF ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Chapel is pleased to welcome Christopher (Kit) Jacobson for his first Sunday as the new Chapel Organist. Kit was chosen as a result of a search that included organists from all over the world. He has served as the Associate Organist at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Columbia, SC, since 2009, and previously worked at the National Cathedral in Washington, DC, as Assistant Organist and Assistant Director of Music. In both of these positions, he was the primary accompanist for each of the four cathedral choirs. He has been the featured performer in conventions of the American Guild of Organists and the Anglican Association of Musicians. He has twice performed the complete organ works of J. S. Bach in two-day marathon performances. Having sung in the American Boychoir in his youth, he studied organ at the Woodberry Forest School, St. Olaf College, and the Eastman School of Music, where he was a student of David Higgs and William Porter. At Duke he will accompany the Chapel Choir, the Vespers Ensemble, and the Divinity School Choir, as well as playing organ in most of the services at the Chapel and in the Divinity School.

- Andrew Klumpp is the Chapel's new Visitor Relations Specialist. A native of Iowa, he has BAs in Music and Religion from Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa, and recently graduated from Duke Divinity School with his M.Div. He sings with the Vespers Ensemble and is a candidate for ministry in the Reformed Church of America.

- James Todd is the Chapel's new Multimedia Specialist. He comes from Duke's Office of News and Communications where he worked as a writer, producer and, most recently, video manager. Before that, he was a production assistant on WUNC Radio's "The State of Things" show. He went to Duke as an undergraduate, majoring in physics. He is a member of the Episcopal Church and lives in Durham with his wife and four children.
