Service of Holy Communion

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost
July 10, 2016
Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Bridging Faith and Learning ∞

"Spring," by Jean François Millet, (1814–1875)

In this morning's passage from Deuteronomy, we hear of the Lord's faithful abundance and immanent grace that have made God's commands and blessings accessible to us. Jesus is the perfect fulfillment of God's promises, and it is through faith in him that we can have relationship with the God who delights in loving us. Jesus instructs us to enact God's loving commands by loving our neighbor as ourselves, illustrated in the Gospel passage through the sacrificial love of the Good Samaritan.

The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

On this Communion Sunday, families with children are invited to sit up front, so they can better observe The Great Thanksgiving. The importance of welcoming children is exemplified in Matthew 18:2-5 by Jesus' answer to the disciples as they wondered who was the greatest in the kingdom of heaven: "He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, 'Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.'" Please help us welcome the children in our midst by letting them know we are glad to see them in worship. By doing so, we are also welcoming Jesus.

CHANGES TO PARKING AT DUKE CHAPEL

The Bryan Center Parking Garage (PGIV) has begun a new parking system. Sunday morning parking will continue to be free until 1:30 p.m. but will require each driver to take a ticket upon entry to the garage and to authenticate it at a pay station available on each pedestrian-entry floor (levels 2 and 3) prior to exiting the garage.

Please plan to arrive early on upcoming Sundays as our community becomes acquainted with the new system. For those who worship regularly at the Chapel, free QR code cards will be available to allow Sunday morning entry and exit. Cards are available at the attendant's desk in the nave near the main entrance of the Chapel.

If you plan to stay past 1:30 p.m. and do not have a Duke parking permit, then please park on levels 4 and 5. Your ticket upon arrival/QR code card will ensure free parking up until 1:30 p.m. You will then have to pay the difference after that time at the pay station on level 3 before you exit.
