In today’s Old Testament passage we learn of God’s command to David to build a temple as the Lord’s dwelling place on earth. Our reading from Ephesians sees the radical second fulfilment of that promise in Jesus Christ—who brings the fullness of the incarnate God beyond the temple walls. Still more miraculously, in Christ we together become the living temple of the Church with God indwelling in those who believe by the Holy Spirit. In this way Jesus the good shepherd gathers his lost sheep to himself, and the holy presence of the Lord moves from a stone temple, to his living Son, and now to all those who believe in him.
At the close of today’s service, the Lord’s Supper will be celebrated in Baldwin Auditorium by the seats at the front left of the stage. Immediately following Communion, a service of prayer for healing will be held in the same location. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

ANTHEM
   My Shepherd Will Supply My Need                American Folk Hymn
   arr. Mack Wilberg (b. 1955)

My shepherd will supply my need; Jehovah is his name.
In pastures fresh he makes me feed, beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back, when I forsake his ways,
And leads me, for his mercy’s sake, in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death, thy presence is my stay.
One word of thy supporting breath drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes, doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows, thine oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days;
O may thy house be mine abode and all my work be praise!
There would I find a settled rest while others go and come,
No more a stranger, nor a guest, but like a child at home.

—Psalm 23 (paraphrase by Isaac Watts)

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—Ephesians 2:11–22
   Lector:  This is the word of the Lord.
   People:  Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL LESSON—Mark 6:30–34, 53–56
   Lector:  This is the word of the Lord.
   People:  Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

*RESPONSE HYMN 653
   Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
   I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
   And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

   I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

   Be Thou My Vision          arr. Alice Parker
   (b. 1925)

   Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
   Nought be all else to me, save that thou art.
   Thou my best thought by day or by night,
   Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

   Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word;
   I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
   Thou my great Father, I thy true son;
   Thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

   Riches I heed not, nor man’s empty praise.
   Thou mine inheritance, now and always;
   Thou and thou only, first in my heart,
   High king of heaven, my treasure thou art.

   High king of heaven, my victory won,
   May I reach heaven’s joys, O bright heaven’s sun!
   Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
   Still be my vision, O ruler of all.
