In today’s Gospel reading we see Jesus’ miraculous power at work as he multiplies five barley loaves and two fish to feed a crowd of over five thousand people. This is prefigured by Elisha’s miraculous feeding of one hundred people centuries before, a sign that God’s loving provision is eternal. St. Paul’s prayer to the Ephesian church is that they would comprehend the breadth, length, height, and depth of the love of Christ for them. That prayer remains just as true for us today because the love of Jesus is complete—he cares for our spiritual and physical needs, with an abundant grace that cannot be measured.
The congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent during the prelude. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the basement of Baldwin.

O Spirit of the Living God

OFFERTORY
How Can I Keep From Singing? arr. Malcolm Archer (b. 1952)

My life flows on in endless song; above earth’s lamentation,
I hear the sweet though far off hymn that hails the new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing;
It finds an echo in my soul; how can I keep from singing?

What though my joys and comforts die? The Lord my Savior liveth;
What though the darkness gather round! Songs in the night he giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that refuge clinging;
Since Christ is Lord of heav’n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

I lift my eyes, the cloud grows thin, I see the blue above it;
And day by day this pathway smoothes since first I learned to love it.
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing,
All things are mine since I am his; how can I keep from singing?

—Robert Lowry

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

TODAY’S FLOWERS—The flowers today are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

TODAY’S OFFERING—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for an emergency fund for disaster and recovery support for communities in our world that are affected by unexpected and sudden disaster (natural or otherwise). Your generosity enables the Chapel to respond quickly with financial support in times of acute crisis.

BIBLES—As pew Bibles are not available during this year of transition, please do feel free to bring your own print or electronic version to worship.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Each week, a downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons are available on the Chapel’s website, chapel.duke.edu. Paper copies are also usually available in the lobby of Baldwin Auditorium after the service.

Today is the final Sunday for the Congregation’s Associate Pastor, The Rev. Brad Troxell. Brad’s ministry with the Congregation began as Interim Assistant Pastor in February 2012 and later he became the Associate Pastor. For a few months, he also served as Acting Head of Staff for the Congregation. His ministry with the congregation focused on youth, young adults and mission. Answering God’s call to military chaplaincy, Brad was recently commissioned as a chaplain in the US Navy and will begin training in Newport, RI next month. We are grateful for his years of service and please pray for him as he begins his new ministry.

Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS AND VISITORS
† Prayer requests may be emailed to chapel-prayers@duke.edu.
† Tours of Duke Chapel are suspended until the nave re-opens.
† Hearing assistance units are available in the lobby of Baldwin Auditorium. See the attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print bulletins for the worship service.

FOR FAMILIES AND CHILDREN
† Children 4 and younger are invited to the nursery located in the Baldwin basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Capacity is limited. Parents are welcome to feed or change infants; pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship.
† Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers, and Activity Bags are available in the entryway of Baldwin for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917 for information.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

The Mission Committee will be collecting school supplies for two Durham high schools on August 2 and 9. Items most in need include loose-leaf paper, spiral one-subject notebooks, three-ring binders, pens, colored pencils, and markers.

SUNDAY ON MONDAY—Women are invited to a night of fellowship and brainstorming regarding the women’s ministry of the Congregation. Join us for ice cream with all the fixin’s at Kate DeAlmeida’s house at 2029 Markham Drive in Chapel Hill at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, August 3. The group will discuss and plan events for the upcoming school year and determine the direction of the women’s ministry. If you plan to attend, please contact the Congregation office at congregation@duke.edu or 919–684–3917.

WHAT IS A POTATO DROP?—The Society of St. Andrew salvages tractor-trailer loads of potatoes that are rejected by commercial markets or potato chip factories due to slight imperfections in size, shape, sugar content, or surface blemishes. Usually, these rejected loads end up at local landfills. With the help of a “Potato Drop,” the Society of St. Andrew is able to redirect these 40,000-pound loads of fresh, nutritious produce to food banks, soup kitchens, food pantries, low income housing areas, local churches, and other hunger agencies for distribution to the poor. On Saturday, August 29, Smith Warehouse parking lot will be the site of a potato drop, and many volunteers will be needed to bag the potatoes into 10lb bags, so they are ready for distribution to those in need. Please plan on volunteering for an hour or more between 10:00 a.m and 3:00 p.m. on August 29.
