Christian faith proclaims the radical notion that the God of all creation also cares for every individual. Today’s Psalm opens with words of praise, proclaiming that all creation shall give glory to God and speak to God’s power and might. In the letter to the church in Ephesus, Paul prays that the church may know both the scope of God’s love and power over creation as well as the intimate care and attention to the details of our lives. The gospel lesson in John reveals this breadth of attention with the miracle of the feeding of the 5000. Jesus sets his heart not just on spiritual well-being, but also on physical wellbeing as well.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Therefore let us, with heads bowed,
Venerate so great a sacrament,
And let the old practice yield
To the new rite;
Let faith provide a supplement
For the failure of the senses.

To the begetter and the begotten
Be praise and jubilation,
Salvation, honor, virtue also,
And blessing,
And let equal praise be to him,
Who proceeds from them both. Amen. —Thomas Aquinas

In Durham, we remember those who live on low income and employers who seek to offer a living wage to their employees. The ushers bring forward a wallet.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK - WHY DO WE CONFESSION OUR SINS?

Sin is not simply something that makes people unhappy or causes pain: it is life based on a false story, one that leads to worshiping something other than the God of Jesus Christ. However, the Christian story does not begin with sin but with God’s decision to be in relationship with humanity and all creation. Thus when there is a breakdown of that relationship, by what has been done, or what has been left undone, it is a tragedy in which the congregation has participated. Repentance means naming and stripping away the things that distance the disciple from the gospel. From personal repentance the congregation moves into corporate confession. It is not just their own sin that separates them from God; sin infects the people of God as a whole. In confessing sin, we recognize that this congregation has joined, even in the past week, in the catastrophe of discarding God’s everlasting invitation to worship and friendship.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Backpack Collection—The Local Missions and Outreach Committee will be collecting back-to-school supplies for local Durham students with limited resources. Items needed include backpacks, scissors, paper, pens, pencils, notebooks, 3-ring binders, pocket folders, erasers, scissors, rulers, markers, crayons, glue, and construction paper. Monetary donations will be accepted as well. Donated supplies may be dropped off in the back pew in the Chapel on Sunday August 5 and August 12.

First Friday Young Adult/Professionals Dinner—Join the 20- and 30-somethings of the Congregation on Friday, August 3, at 6:00 p.m. at Pop’s Backdoor–Pizza South (3710 Shannon Road). Bring a friend; bring your family; everyone’s welcome. We look forward to seeing you there!

Congregation Staff Announcement—Sonja Tilley, the Director of Christian Education for the Congregation, has accepted a new position as the Staff Specialist for the Office of the Chaplain and the Anglican Episcopal House of Studies at Duke Divinity School. She will begin her new position on August 1. We are grateful for her service and leadership in the Congregation. We will miss her many gifts, but we send her with our blessings on her new work and ministry.

Durham Bulls Game—The Local Missions committee, along with Volunteers of America, is sponsoring a trip to a Durham Bulls game to treat the veterans who live at Maple Court. The game is on Tuesday, August 7, at 7:05 p.m and will pit the Bulls against the Columbus Clippers. Sign up by tomorrow (July 29) to attend the game. If you are unable to attend but would like to treat a veteran, please consider donating to the cost of tickets ($9 for two tickets), and concession stand food and beverages. Checks can be made payable to the Congregation, with “ballgame” written in the memo line. Please note: this is a family friendly, alcohol-free event. For more information and to sign up, contact Marilyn Christian at mchristian2@nc.rr.com.

Sunday Morning Bible Study: Ephesians—Sonja Tilley is leading a Bible Study on Ephesians on Sunday mornings from 9:45-10:45 a.m. in the Divinity School, Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building. Please contact Sonja at sonja.tilley@duke.edu or 919-684-3917 for more information.

Dinner at Urban Ministries—Each month the Congregation provides a meal for homeless guests at Urban Ministries of Durham. If you would like to donate lasagnas, serve one of the next meals, or acquire more information, please contact Ned Arnett at 919-489-4133 or email edward.arnett@duke.edu.
