BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP
Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, July 10, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

Frank Wesley, Dedication of Paul and Barnabas.

The scripture lessons from Acts continue the story of the spread of God's mission into the Gentile world. In Acts 13, we learn that there were prophets and teachers in the church in Antioch. While the church was fasting and praying, they heard the Holy Spirit's calling to set apart Barnabas and Saul—also called Paul—for a special work, and then the church sent the men on their way. In Acts 14, Barnabas and Saul return from their mission of spreading the good news to encourage the church at Antioch and to share all that God had done through them. The lesson from Luke tells the story of Jesus sending out the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of God. Through each of these stories, the church today is invited to consider our calling to spread the message of Christ in the world.

Response

*Response Hymn 108

God Hath Spoken by the Prophets

EBENEZER

*Affirmation of Faith

We believe that God shows no partiality, and that those who fear God and do what is right are acceptable to God. We believe God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and that Jesus went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed. We believe Jesus was put to death by hanging on a tree, but that God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear to those who were chosen by God as witnesses. We believe Jesus is the Lord of all and is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead, and that all the prophets have testified about Jesus that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

—Adapted from Acts 10:34–43

ENGAGE

Departure of Chapel Organist Christopher Jacobson | Having served eight years at Duke Chapel, Christopher Jacobson has decided to leave his position as Chapel Organist at Duke Chapel to pursue other professional opportunities. At the Chapel, Jacobson has brought his remarkable musicianship to worship services, concerts, and training programs. He has been a hardworking and superb organist, playing worship services, weddings, funerals, concerts, and university ceremonies. He has also been an artistic leader at the Chapel, helping to launch Sunday afternoon Evensong services, training Organ Scholars, and directing the Evensong Singers in services, concerts, and a 2018 residency tour to England. His own recitals at the Chapel have been masterfully musical and creatively programmed; livestreams of those recitals have been viewed more than 50,000 times. While he has been at the Chapel, Jacobson's skill and dedication have led to a number of accomplishments, including earning the distinction of Fellow of the Royal College of Organists, the highest honor awarded by the international Royal College of Organists. We thank Christopher for his service and pray for God's richest blessings on his work and life in the future.
