SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, July 22, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Personification of Fortitude,
Quatrefoil on the exterior of Cathédrale d'Amiens, c. 1230

In this morning's reading from Deuteronomy, Moses begins to instruct Israel in the Lord's rules concerning warfare. Israel is called to determine the odds against them while remembering the Lord's mighty victories on their behalf. The public officials are then called to ask the troops a series of questions to test their resolve for battle. Those who do not make excuses to leave the ranks are then rallied by the commanders. Likewise, in Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of how many are invited to a great dinner, but all make excuses why they cannot attend. The master of the feast then calls for his house to be filled with others, including the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame. Jesus invites us to feast in his Kingdom, and warns us not to make excuses for rejecting the invitation.

Response

*The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

BACK PEW COLLECTION | Donations of canned fruits and vegetables, canned meats, canned beans, canned soups, cereals, whole grain pasta, rice, peanut butter, paper towels and toilet paper for the Food Bank of Central and Eastern NC located in Durham may be placed on the back pew today.

SUMMER SCRIPTURE LESSONS | As Christians who worship in a liturgical tradition, we follow the Revised Common Lectionary for our scripture texts throughout the year. This three-year cycle of scriptures follows the Christian calendar, and passages are selected to match the season of the Church year and the themes present therein. This summer during Ordinary Time, we will be following a different selection of texts. Together, we will read the book of Deuteronomy as our primary scripture lessons in our Sunday services, and our preachers will be preaching from Deuteronomy throughout the summer. Reading and listening together will allow our community to learn from scripture passages that we do not regularly encounter through the lectionary in our worship services and will open us to receive from a broader range of the scriptural canon; this approach is called lectio continua. We hope you will join us through the summer as we read, study, and learn from the book of Deuteronomy.

LECTIO CONTINUA LESSONS | We invite you to read Deuteronomy with us outside of our Sunday services on the following schedule before the date listed: July 29 (23:1–26:19), August 5 (27:1–29:1), August 12 (29:2–31:29), and August 19 (31:30–34:10).

GUEST PREACHER NEXT WEEK | Next Sunday, the Chapel will welcome the Rev. Dr. Leslie D. Callahan, who serves as the pastor of St. Paul's Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She began the public proclamation of the gospel at age nineteen, and earned a BA in religion from Harvard University/Radcliffe, a MDiv from Union Theological Seminary, and PhD in religion from Princeton University. She has served on the faculty of New York Theological Seminary as assistant professor of modern church history and African American studies.

SUMMER ORGAN WORK | This summer on weekdays through August 17 specialists will work to “voice” the Chapel’s Benjamin N. Duke Memorial (Flentrop) Organ. Voicing is the art of giving a particular voice to each pipe. The voicer manipulates the mouth of each pipe (akin to the mouthpiece of a recorder, or the opening in a whistle), so it speaks promptly and has the right timbre and volume. The project will require complete quiet in the Chapel’s main sanctuary (nave). Visitors will be asked to enter and exit through the side transept doors so as not to disturb the work. The voicing work will not affect services and events on the weekends. Thank you for accommodating the inconveniences of this project.

NOMINATIONS FOR SERVICE AWARD | The Chapel is now accepting nominations for its Humanitarian Service Award. The award is given each year to recognize individuals with a commitment to service and simplicity. It is inspired by the lives of two Duke professors: Dr. George R. Parkerson Jr. and the late Dr. C. Eric Lincoln. The recipient of the award receives a grant of between $1,500 and $3,000 to further humanitarian efforts. Nominations are due by August 17. For more information, contact the Rev. Bruce Puckett at bruce.puckett@duke.edu.

JOB OPENING | The Chapel is seeking to hire a visitor relations specialist. The person in this position welcomes visitors and acts as an ambassador for the Chapel. He or she also helps coordinate the Chapel’s events calendar and does research on the history of the Chapel. Anyone interested is invited to apply through the Duke HR website using requisition number 401442717.

EVENSONG UK RESIDENCIES | The Duke Evensong Singers are presently leading choral services in historic cathedrals in the United Kingdom. The group will be in residence singing at St. Martin-in-the-Fields on July 22, Gloucester Cathedral from July 23 to 27, and Westminster Abbey on July 28 and 29.

FOR YOUNG ADULTS AND UNIVERSITY STUDENTS | Young adults and university students are invited to gather for dinner and Bible study on Thursday evenings in the Chapel kitchen, twice a month. The next gathering will be July 26 at 6:30 p.m. with Galatians as the topic of discussion. Fellowship, laughter, study, and prayer are on the agenda.
