

Duke UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Eighth Sunday After Pentecost
August 3, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

✻ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ✻

The lessons for this week remind us that the God of the Bible is a God who is with us in the midst of our of wrestling, our despair, and our want. The lesson from Genesis recounts Jacob's long night of wrestling, only to discover at dawn that he'd been wrestling God, who blesses him. The gospel lesson from Matthew tells the miracle of Jesus transforming two fish and five loaves into a meal for 5000 people.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*

This morning we give thanks for Duke Police Department. We celebrate its commitment to the public safety of our campus through law enforcement and security services.

In Durham, we remember any who struggle with addiction, those who walk together in recovery support groups, and counselors and community organizations who work closely with people struggling with addictions.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK -

WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple, and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to lay aside everything and to follow him. Yet, we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. Two significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.
