"Nathan Admonishing David," by Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn, c. 1655-56.

In today's lesson from 2 Samuel, the prophet Nathan speaks a word of judgment to David for his affair with Bathsheba and subsequent murder of Uriah, Bathsheba's husband. By telling a parable of a rich man and poor man, Nathan convicts David of his sin and prods David to make a fresh start through God's mercy. In John's gospel, Jesus acknowledges the ways that God provides physical nourishment by referring to the miracle of the manna in the desert in connection to his feeding of the 5000. Jesus is clear that his nourishment is about satisfying not only physical hunger but also spiritual hunger. The bread of heaven is food for body and spirit.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Center for Instructional Technology (CIT). We value its support of the academic mission of the University by helping instructors find innovative ways to use technology to achieve their teaching goals. Drawing on expertise in both technology and pedagogy, CIT seeks to enliven the learning experience through technology. The ushers bring an iPad to the altar.

In Durham, we remember those who are hungry and who may struggle for daily bread. The ushers bring forward a loaf of bread.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Today's flowers are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Doris Altmeyer by her family.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for an emergency fund for disaster and recovery support for communities in our world that are affected by unexpected and sudden disaster (natural or otherwise). Your generosity enables the Chapel to respond quickly with financial support in times of acute crisis.

SCAFFOLDING IN THE CHAPEL—Please excuse the scaffolding in the Chapel. The scaffolding closest to the entrance is in place to reinstall the Chapel's stained glass "Job" window, which has been away for the last year to be cleaned and repaired. An ongoing process is under way to restore the Chapel's stained glass windows. The scaffolding in the middle of the Chapel is in place to allow examination of some cracks in the ribs of the Chapel ceiling.

SUMMER CHOIR—Duke Chapel welcomes singers to its Summer Choir, which assists in leading worship over the summer months. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Brian Schmidt. Regular rehearsals are on Sundays at 9:15 a.m. Call 919-684-3898 for details.

VISITING THE CHAPEL—The Chapel often has weddings booked on Saturdays and Sunday afternoons, especially during the summer months. If a wedding is taking place, visitors will not be permitted inside. Before visiting on a weekend, please call 681-9488 to learn when the Chapel will be open to the public.

DUKE CHAPEL EVENTS LISTSERV—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming events sponsored by Duke Chapel, such as concerts, talks, special worship services, and more, please visit www.chapel.duke.edu/calendar, or send an email to Kelsey Hallatt at kelsey.hallatt@duke.edu.

NEW DEAN OF DUKE CHAPEL

President Richard Brodhead recently announced the Rev. Dr. Luke Powery will be the Chapel's next dean. Powery, who will be the first black dean of Duke Chapel, has taught at Princeton Theological Seminary since 2006, where he is the Perry and Georgia Engle assistant professor of homiletics. Powery received his B.A. from Stanford University, his M.Div. from Princeton Theological Seminary, and his Th.D. from Emmanuel College, University of Toronto. He is the author of Spirit Speech: Lament and Celebration in Preaching (Abingdon Press, 2009). His most recent book, Dem Dry Bones: Preaching, Death, and Hope, draws on the spirituals as a resource for preaching and was published by Fortress Press in July. Powery was ordained by the Progressive National Baptist Convention and has served in an ecumenical capacity in religious settings around the world. Prior to entering the academy, he was associate pastor of the International Protestant Church of Zurich, an interdenominational and intercultural congregation in Switzerland. He is the recipient of numerous scholastic fellowships and awards from organizations such as the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology and Religion and the Fund for Theological Education. He is married to Gail Powery, with whom he has a daughter, Moriah, and a son, Zachary.
