In the midst of hardship or fear, it can be difficult to believe that God is for us. Yet, scripture affirms again and again this to be true. Today’s lesson from Genesis describes the favored son of Jacob, Joseph, and the animosity of his brothers who sold him into slavery. Yet the surprises of God persist, and Joseph is not eclipsed from the line of promise. In Romans, Paul suggests the gift of salvation grows through belief from the heart. In Matthew 14, Jesus walks upon stormy water and invites Peter to join him, but Peter’s fear prevents him. It is not the waves themselves that cause Peter to sink, but his fear of them. The lesson encourages us to trust the power of God, even in the face of unsettling storms.
At the close of today’s service, the Lord’s Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel, located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord’s Supper, a Service of Healing will be held in the Memorial Chapel. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

SERMON—We Have Forgotten How to Walk on Water

RESPONSE
SERMON RESPONSE
Let Us Ever Walk With Jesus

Let us ever walk with Jesus, follow his example pure,
Through a world that would deceive us, where to sin our hearts are lured.
Ever in his footsteps treading, living here, yet home above,
Full of faith and hope and love,
Let us do our Father’s bidding, faithful Lord, abide with me;
Savior, lead, I follow thee.
Let us also die with Jesus, by his cross he conquered death,
Freed us from our souls’ destruction,
Quickened us with life’s new breath.

Let us mortify, while living, self and pride, and die to sin,
And the grave that shuts us in shall but prove the gate to heaven.
Jesus, here I die to thee, there to dwell eternally.

Let us gladly live with Jesus, he is risen from the dead.
Death is swallowed up in victory, Jesus, thou art now our head.
Living members of thy body, where thou livest, we shall be,
Thou wilt keep us constantly,
Even so, dear Lord, come quickly,
Jesus, here I live to thee, there to dwell eternally.

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell. The third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Call to Prayer

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People

(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

This morning we give thanks for the Sarah P. Duke Gardens. We celebrate the way the Gardens are a focus for a diverse public community as well as university members, as a quiet location for study, contemplation, prayer, and fun.

In Durham, we remember parish nurses and home healthcare providers who visit patients in their homes, and we give thanks for the support they offer families, congregations, and physicians.

“Psalm 46” from A Festival of Psalms

John Ness Beck

(1930-1987)

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth be removed,
And the mountains be carried away to the very midst of the sea.
Though the waters roar and the mountains quake at his majesty
There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God,
The holy place of the tabernacle, the holy place of the Lord.
God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
He shall defend her from the night through the dawn.
The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Be still and know that I am God:
I will be exalted above all nations.
I will be exalted upon the earth.

(The congregation may remain seated and join in singing the bold print)
A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing;
Our helper he amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.
His everlasting love will guide us from above.
All glory to his name, from age to age the same:
His Kingdom is forever.

*Doxology
Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
