Service of Worship

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost
August 13, 2017

The apostle Paul declares that all those who confess with their lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in their hearts that God raised him from the dead will be saved. Yet in this morning's Gospel reading, Jesus warns that much is required of those who would follow him, teaching that 'foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.
