Psalm 111 is full of exuberant praise of God’s goodness and ends by reminding us that “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom”. Across the witness of scripture we see one of the Holy Spirit’s roles as being the bringer of wisdom, through which we are invited to live a life guided by divine truth. St. Paul teaches the church at Ephesus to overflow with thanksgiving to our heavenly Father, and in our Gospel passage Jesus invites us into intimate relationship with the Godhead by sharing in the eucharistic feast. This invitation to personal and corporate relationship with the Trinity is awe-inspiring, and we can rejoice that we have the Spirit to guide us along the way.
During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

God of glory, the end of our searching, please send your Holy Spirit of wisdom upon us now to illumine your word and inspire our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
OLD TESTAMENT LESSON—Psalm 111
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM
A Round of Thanks. O Waly, Waly, arr. Donald Moore
(b. 1946)

O come, ye thankful people come,
And raise the song of harvest home.
Sing to our God with cheerful voice
A simple hymn: rejoice, rejoice!

O come, ye thankful people come,
And raise the song of harvest home.
Our God, our Maker doth provide
For all our wants to be supplied.

Thanks be to God, thanks be to God.
Thanks be to God, thanks be to God.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—Ephesians 5:15–20
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL LESSON—John 6:51–58
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

*RESPONSE HYMN (Based on Psalm 111.)
I Come with Thanks Most Grateful

NUN JAUCHZET ALL, IHR FROMMEN

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
Sing Out with Gladness

Lee Dengler
Words by Susan Naus Dengler
(b. 1949)

Come now, all people, and worship the Lord.
Sing out your songs of delight.
Fill all the world with your voices so strong.
Praise God from morning till night.

Refrain: Glory and honor and blessing and praise,
Sing out with gladness for all of your days. Repeat

Sun, moon and stars, come and offer your praise.
Stormy winds, lift up God’s name.
Add your loud noises, O thunder and hail:
Songs of God’s greatness proclaim. Refrain

Animals, join in with chattering sounds.
Birds, chirp and twitter along.
Creatures in oceans, with voices so deep,
Join all creation in song. Refrain

*DOXOLOGY
LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Today’s Flowers—Today’s flowers are given to the glory of God in memory of Terry Sanford by his family.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to underwrite the costs for undergraduate students going on the Chapel’s Spring Break mission trips. Duke Chapel PathWays provides mission trip opportunities for students who are interested in spending their Spring Break in service and reflection. Most recently, Chapel staff led student trips to Costa Rica and Kentucky.

Sermons Available—Each week, a downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons are available on the Chapel’s website, chapel.duke.edu. Paper copies are also usually available in the lobby of Page Auditorium after the service.

Greeting the Preacher—Our preacher this morning will be available to greet after the service, up the stairs in the main lobby of Page.

Bibles—As pew Bibles are not available during this year of transition, please do feel free to bring your own print or electronic version to worship.

Choral Vespers and Evensong

You are warmly invited to these upcoming services:

Choral Evensong: Though new to Duke, Choral Evensong is a centuries-old tradition that continues to be prayed everyday all over the world. It will be offered every Sunday beginning August 30 at 4 p.m. in Goodson Chapel. All are welcome. Drawn from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, all are invited to enter into a sacred space of reflection through music, scripture, and prayers that have shaped Christian lives for centuries. For more information please contact Christopher Jacobson at christopher.jacobson@duke.edu or 919-684-6388. Note: incense will be used at this service.

Choral Vespers: The Vespers Ensemble leads the weekly Choral Vespers service on Thursdays at 6 p.m in Goodson Chapel, beginning September 3. This meditative 40-minute candlelit service consists of scripture readings, prayers, and sacred choral music spanning from the Renaissance through today. In addition to weekly service singing, the choir performs one concert per semester, mostly focusing on early music from the Renaissance and Baroque periods. For more information please contact Brian Schmidt at brian.schmidt@duke.edu or 919-684-3855.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Sunday Christian Education Classes—Weekly Christian education is offered on Sunday mornings from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. in the Westbrook Building. New participants are welcome any time.
- Wee Praise: For children ages 0-3 with parents/caregivers in 0011 WB
- Children/Youth Choir: For children age 4 and up and youth in 0014 WB
- Adult/Youth Class: Bible Study on the Acts of the Apostles in 0013 WB

Children and Youth Choir—Our gratitude goes to Kaity Woodrum, Eryn Dennehy, and Laura Woodrum for their leadership of the Children's and Youth Choir this summer. We are also grateful for all of the children who have sung with the choir and have shared their music in worship.

Office Open House—All are invited to see the Congregation’s temporary offices on Wednesday, August 19 from 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. The offices are located in the lower level of Northgate Mall, suite 662. Enter through the door marked “Northgate Business Center” near Ruby Tuesday, take the elevator or stairs down one level, then follow signs to 662.

Serving Dinner—Volunteers are needed to bring lasagna and serve dinner at the Urban Ministries shelter on Wednesday, August 26 at 6:15 p.m., Sunday, September 13 at 5:15 p.m., October 28 (6:15 p.m.), and November 11 (5:15 p.m.). Please contact Cricket Scovil at scovilj@aol.com or call the congregation office if you are available to help. New volunteers will be given detailed instructions.

Volunteers Needed to Bag Potatoes—Volunteers of all ages are needed to bag 40,000 pounds of potatoes on Saturday, August 29, between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. in the Smith Warehouse parking lot, 114 S. Buchanan St., Durham. These potatoes, rejected by commercial markets due to surface blemishes, will be given to local food pantries. Please sign up for one or more hour-long shifts at bit.ly/1HLFaeA or by calling the Congregation office at 919-684-3917.

Godly Play Open House—All are invited to a Godly Play Open House on Sunday, August 30 at 9:45 a.m. in 0050 Langford, in the lowest level of Duke Divinity School. Parents and children are invited to visit the Godly Play classroom together. Attendance is especially encouraged for the 4-year-olds who will be joining Godly Play this year.

ENews—The Congregation at Duke Chapel publishes a weekly email announcing fellowship events, service opportunities and Christian education classes. If you would like to receive this weekly newsletter, please email congregation@duke.edu.
O Worship the King

1. O worship the King, all glorious above,
   O gratefully sing God's power and God's love;
   Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days,
   Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

2. O tell of God's might, O sing of God's grace,
   Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space,
   Almighty, thy power hath founded of old,
   And dark is God's path on the wings of the storm.

3. The earth with its store of wonders untold,
   It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
   In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
   And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

4. Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
   Al might y, thy power hath founded of old;
   It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
   And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

5. Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
   In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
   In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
   Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

How Can We Name a Love

1. How can we name a Love that wakens heart and mind, in-dwelling all we know or think or do or seek or find?
   Within our daily world, in every human face,
   Love's echoes sound and God is found, hid in the commonplace.

2. If we awoke to life built on a rock of care that asked no great reward but firm, assured, was simply there,
   With our parents' names, describe, and thus adore,
   Love unconfined, a father kind, a mother strong and sure.

3. When people share a task, and strength and skills unite in projects old or new, to make or do with shared delight,
   Our Friend and Partner's will is better understood,
   That all should share, create, and care, and know that life is good.

4. So in a hundred names, each day we all can meet a presence, sensed and shown at work, at home, or in the street.
   Yet every name we see, shines in a brighter sun.
   In Christ alone is Love full grown and life and hope begun.
