

Duke UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Tenth Sunday After Pentecost
August 17, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"The Canaanite Woman," by Jean Colombe, c. 1480s.

In a world of strife and division, the Psalmist affirms, "How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!" Paul echoes this sentiment in his letter to the church in Rome, and reminds the Jewish community that God has not rejected his people, because the gifts and calling of God are irrevocable. In the gospel lesson from Matthew, the story of Jesus and the Canaanite woman suggests that it is not the external actions that determine purity before God, but the internal disposition of the heart. A heart properly disposed towards God has deeper roots than those who only worship through external actions.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*
