"Dream of Solomon," by Luca Giordano, c. 1693.

The focus of this week's scripture readings is on the gift of wisdom. King Solomon, successor of David, prays for wisdom in a dream, and God grants this request. In the Old Testament, wisdom gives concrete and practical ways for people to live out deliberately their commitment to God. Incorporating wisdom into even the small dimensions of daily living provides a way of inviting God into the contours of each day. Wisdom is also often understood in the Christian tradition as representing the third person of the Holy Trinity—the divine breath that participated in creation still participates in the recreation and renewal of those who seek her. In the gospel lesson from John, the lectionary passage continues to linger in John 6 and Jesus as the bread of life, and his eucharistic emphasis that his body and blood are the food for eternal life.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Today's Flowers are given to the glory of God by given to the glory of God in memory of Terry Sanford's birthday by his family.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God's call for their lives through study, counsel, service, and community. Dr. Charles and Mrs. Ann Sanders, together with a couple who have asked not to be named, have pledged to match all PathWays gifts on a one-to-one basis up to $60,000.

UPDATE ON SCAFFOLDING IN THE CHAPEL—We have recently learned that the scaffolding spanning the sanctuary will remain through mid September while the ceiling over it is stabilized. Additionally, during the week of August 27, a smaller set of scaffolding will be erected next to the attendant's desk while the recently restored Judas Maccabeus stained-glass window is replaced. Beginning Monday, September 10, Duke Chapel will close for nine to eleven days so its ceiling can undergo inspection. Church services on September 16 will be held on the Chapel lawn with Page Auditorium as a backup location in the event of rain. David Arcus's September 16 organ recital has been cancelled. During the time when the upstairs portion of the Chapel is closed, Monday Morning Prayer will be held in the Chapel basement lounge. The Tuesday Communion service and Thursday Choral Vespers services will take place in Goodson Chapel in the Divinity School. University events scheduled to take place in the Chapel during the week of Orientation will continue as planned.

CHAPEL CHOIR OPEN REHEARSALS—Have you ever thought about joining the Chapel Choir? There are two rehearsals coming up that are open to anyone: Saturday, August 25, 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., and Wednesday, August 29, 6:00-7:30 p.m. You are also welcome to sing in the 9:15 a.m. rehearsal and 11:00 a.m. service with the Chapel Choir on Sunday, August 26. Come and give it a try!

QUESTIONS PEOPLE OFTEN ASK - WHY DO WE PROCESS INTO THE SANCTUARY?

Throughout the Bible there is a tension between God's people as a settled people, enjoying land, king, and temple, and God's people as a pilgrim nation, experiencing exodus, wilderness, and exile. Jesus comes to a people who are in internal exile under the Romans; he encourages them to leave aside everything and to follow him. Yet, we often forget we are a pilgrim people. And so in every act of worship we have a procession, in order to embody what it means to live the life of faith as a journey. The two most significant forms of companionship are to share a meal and to share a journey. Worship begins with one and ends with the other. Just as the Road to Emmaus was, in Luke, the first encounter with the risen Christ, so today breaking bread together helps us identify the God we meet on the journey.
