This past week new students and faculty have made their way to campus and have been oriented to the Duke community. This special week ends with Orientation Sunday and a service filled with new faces, new energy, and new excitement. We warmly welcome those of you who are new to Duke and invite you to make the Chapel an integral part of your time here, as together we build community, share friendship, and encounter the living Lord Jesus. In this morning's Gospel reading, we are invited to answer Jesus' question "But who do you say that I am?"

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Upon This Rock

John Ness Beck

(1930–1987)

Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds has come. Arise, and come away.

—Matthew 16:18; Song of Solomon 2:11–13

(Choir and Congregation standing)

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the word;
From heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Yet she on earth hath union with Father, Spirit, Son,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and Holy! Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

Amen.
