BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP
Tenth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, August 14, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

Paul Jean Clays, The Day After the Shipwreck, 1815.

The final chapters of Acts end with Paul's harrowing journey to Rome. The scripture lessons today tell the story of Paul being taken to the emperor by a centurion named Julius. Despite Paul's warnings and the dangerous path ahead, Julius decided to sail from Lasea to Crete. While at sea the winds grew and a storm arose, and those traveling by ship experienced much loss. In the midst of the storm, an angel of the Lord visited Paul and reassured him that though the situation was dire, no one needed to fear for their lives. Paul knew that destruction and loss were inevitable, yet he had faith that God was at work making a way for him to arrive safely before the emperor.

Laudate Dominum

Philippe Rogier
(1561–1596)

Laudate Dominum in sanctis ejus;

    laudate eum in firmamento virtutis ejus.

Laudate eum in virtutibus ejus;

    laudate eum secundum multitudinem magnitudinis ejus.

Laudate eum in sono tubae;

    laudate eum in psalterio et cithara.

Laudate eum in tympano et choro;

    laudate eum in chordis et organo.

Laudate eum in cymbalis benesonantibus;

    laudate eum in cymbalis jubilationis.

Omnis spiritus laudet Dominum!

*O praise God in his holiness;
praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him in his noble acts:
praise him according to his excellent greatness.
Praise him in the sound of the trumpet:
praise him upon the lute and harp.
Praise him in the cymbals and dances:
praise him upon the strings and pipe.
Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals:
praise him upon the loud cymbals.
Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.*

—Psalm 150

*Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine | All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Wine is used for Communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at a Communion station on the pulpit side in the front and the back of the Chapel. A gluten-free option is available from a server positioned by Memorial Chapel and a server positioned opposite the attendant's desk near the narthex. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

ENGAGE

Snackluck Today | All are invited to attend a snackluck in the Chapel lounge, located in the lower level of the Chapel immediately following worship today. A snackluck is a time to eat a variety of snacks and visit with other worshippers. Please head downstairs to attend the “Hot Diggity Dog Days of Summer Snackluck.”

2022–23 Duke Chapel Concert Season | This year, the Chapel’s concert season will resound with songs praising God’s goodness and reiterating the church’s desire for a more just world. The season begins with settings of the Magnificat, with its prophetic reminders of God’s justice, featured in the Bach Cantata program on September 18. The theme of justice and praise continues in a concert by the Jason Max Ferdinand Singers, Jazz Vespers services, and a Lenten program of Black spirituals and German chorales. The spring oratorio brings the theme to its culmination with Franz Joseph Haydn’s Missa in Angustiis (“Mass for Troubled Times”), and the world premiere of a new setting of Martín Espada’s poem “Heal the Cracks in the Bell of the World” for choir, carillon, and orchestra. The season also features perennial favorites such as Handel’s Messiah, the organ recital series, and the myriad worship services led by the Chapel’s marvelous choirs, organists, and guest musicians. We hope that you will join us as we add our voice to Mary’s, singing of God’s justice, mercy, and peace. Visit chapel.duke.edu/music to see the full schedule.

Back Pew Collection | Help Durham school children get needed school supplies as the new school year begins! With the community’s help, Crayons2Calculators (C2C) helps equip Durham Public School teachers with the classroom supplies they need to reduce barriers to success for every Durham Public School student. Today and next Sunday, August 21, the Congregation will collect items for C2C on the back pew of the Chapel. Items most needed are: notebook paper, composition books (college rule), crayons (boxes of 16 or 24), hand sanitizer (small 8 oz. size bottles), blunt nose scissors, rulers, white glue (small), color markers (12-packs), pencil bags/pouches to hold 1 dozen pencils, and black permanent markers.

Welcoming Students Back to Campus | We look forward to welcoming students back to campus over the coming weeks! By participating in the life of the Chapel, as well as by joining campus Religious Life groups, students can connect their faith with their education at Duke. Visit chapel.duke.edu/students to see the many ways students bridge faith and learning through Chapel programs and ministries.

Durham Pilgrimage of Pain and Hope This Fall | Join students and Duke community members for the weekend of September 9–11 to discover how your spiritual journey is connected to our city of Durham. Space on the pilgrimage is limited. Contact the Chapel's community minister, the Rev. Breana van Velzen, by August 25 to learn more and sign up.
