Jesus’ teaching on the Kingdom of God disrupts our assumptions about the world and challenges us to examine how we assign value to people. The scripture readings this morning reveal different aspects of this Kingdom perspective. In Proverbs, we see how God pleads on behalf of the poor and how worldly status will ultimately fail in light of our equal humanity before our Creator. Likewise, in James, we are warned not to favor those who have earthly power and wealth, but rather to live out a life of active faith. In Mark’s Gospel, Jesus radically extends the Kingdom by conversing with a Gentile woman and healing her daughter. In this we see Jesus’ invitation to those who are different, lowly, or who have no voice, like the child. We too are invited to share in this radical calling of the Kingdom and to receive the love and mercy of the King of kings.
During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

GATHERING

Prelude
Trio Sonata in E-flat major, BWV 525 Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

CHORAL INTROIT
If Ye Love Me Philip Wilby (b. 1949)

If ye love me, keep my commandments, and I will pray the Father. And he shall give you another comforter, that he may abide with you forever, even the spirit of truth. And ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you.

—John 14:15–18

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*Processional Hymn 265 (Please see hymns at back of bulletin.)
O Christ, the Healer

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance (in unison)
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways; to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace
(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

Prayer for Illumination (in unison)
Father God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful in prayer and the breaking of bread, and send your Spirit to open your word to us now; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson—Proverbs 22:1–2, 8–9, 22–23
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.
NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—James 2:1–17
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL LESSON—Mark 7:24–37
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON—Crumbs for a Cause

RESPONSE

*RESPONSE HYMN 273
Jesus’ Hands Were Kind Hands AU CLAIR DE LA LUNE

CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

OFFERTORY ANTHEM
Let All the World Ralph Vaughan Williams
(from Five Mystical Songs) (1872–1958)

Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King.
The heavens are not too high, his praise may thither fly:
The earth is not too low, his praises there may grow.
The Church with Psalms must shout, no door can keep them out:
But above all, the heart must bear the longest part.

—George Herbert

A child and youth member of the Congregation at Duke University Chapel bring forward offerings collected in the children and youth Sunday School classes.

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND HOLY COMMUNION

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord.
Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine

All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Wine is used for Communion. Grape juice and/or gluten free wafers are available upon request at the Communion station at the front right. If you would prefer not to receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual prayer and anointing with oil, ministers are by the water fountains at the left-hand foot of the stairs in the lower Page lobby during Communion.

Tu pauperum refugium

Josquin des Prez (c. 1450–1521)

Tu pauperum refugium, tu languorum remedium, spes exsulum, fortitudo laborantium, via errantium, veritas et vita, et nunc Redemptor, Domine, ad te solum confugio. Te verum Deum adoro, in te spero, in te confido, salus mea, Jesu Christe. Adjuva me, ne unquam obdormiat in morte anima mea.

Thou art the refuge of the poor, remedy for afflictions, hope of exiles, strength of those who labor, way for the wandering, truth and life. And now, Redeemer, Lord, in thee alone I take refuge; thee, true God, I adore, in thee I hope, in thee I confide, my salvation, O Jesus Christ. Help me, lest my soul ever sleep in death.

Sending Forth

Benediction

Choral Blessing

God Be in My Head

John Rutter (b. 1945)

God be in my head and in my understanding. God be in mine eyes and in my looking. God be in my mouth and in my speaking. God be in my heart and in my thinking. God be at my end and in my departing.

Postlude

Fanfare

Kenneth Leighton (1929–1988)

All who are able may stand.
Prayers for the Week

This morning we lift up Duke parents, especially parents of incoming first-year students, as they face this transition in the life of their child.

In Durham, we remember any who struggle with addiction, those who walk together in recovery support groups, and counselors and community organizations who work closely with people suffering with addictions.

For Worshipers and Visitors

† Prayer requests may be emailed to chapel-prayers@duke.edu.
† Tours of Duke Chapel are suspended until the nave re-opens.
† Hearing assistance units are available in the lobby of Page Auditorium. See the attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print bulletins for the worship service.

For Families and Children

† Children 4 and younger are invited to the nursery located in the Page box office, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Capacity is limited. Parents are welcome to feed or change infants; pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship.
† Children’s bulletins are available from the ushers, and activity bags are available in the entryway of Page for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917 for information.
Today’s Flowers—Today’s flowers are given to the glory of God by the Erlenbach Family Trust.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends of Duke Chapel, and students. The grantmaking process not only benefits people in need but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

Sermons Available—Each week, a downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons are available on the Chapel’s website, chapel.duke.edu. Paper copies are available this morning by the main Quad and accessible exits of Page Auditorium after the service.

Choral Evensong—Though new to Duke, Choral Evensong is a centuries-old tradition that continues to be prayed everyday all over the world. It is offered every Sunday during the semester at 4 p.m. in Goodson Chapel. All are welcome and invited to enter into a sacred space of reflection through music, scripture, and prayers drawn from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer. For more information please contact Christopher Jacobson at christopher.jacobson@duke.edu or 919-684-6388. Note: incense will be used at this service.

Choral Vespers—The Vespers Ensemble leads the weekly Choral Vespers service on Thursdays at 6 p.m in Goodson Chapel, beginning this week on September 3. This meditative 40-minute candlelit service consists of scripture readings, prayers, and sacred choral music spanning from the Renaissance through today. In addition to weekly service singing, the choir performs one concert per semester, mostly focusing on early music from the Renaissance and Baroque periods. For more information please contact Brian Schmidt at brian.schmidt@duke.edu or 919-684-3855.

Bibles—As pew Bibles are not available during this year of transition, please do feel free to bring your own print or electronic version to worship.

Greeting the Preacher—Our preacher this morning will be available to greet after the service, up the stairs in the main lobby of Page.

Upcoming Guest Preachers

September 13: Anna Carter Florence—Dr. Florence is the Peter Marshall Associate Professor of Preaching at Columbia Theological Seminary.

September 20: Barry Black—Rear Admiral Rev. Dr. Barry Black is the Chaplain to the US Senate and former Chief of Naval Chaplains.

Jesus’ Hands Were Kind Hands

Unison

1. Jesus’ hands were kind hands, doing good to all,
   healing pain and sickness, blessing children small,
   washing tired feet, and saving those who fall;
   Jesus’ hands were kind hands, doing good to all.

2. Take my hands, Lord Jesus, let them work for you;

1. Where cross the crowded ways of life, where sound the cries of race and clan, above the noise of selfish strife, we hear your voice, O Son of man.

2. In haunts of wretchedness and need, on shadowed thresholds dark with fears, from paths where hide the lures of greed, we catch the vision of your tears.

3. From tender childhood's helplessness, from woman's grief, man's burdened toil, from famished souls, from sorrow's stress, your heart has never known recoil.

4. The cup of water given for you still holds the tudes to view the sweet compassion of your face.

5. O Master, from the mountainside make haste to heal these hearts of pain; among these restless
throngs abide; O tread the city's streets again,

6. Till all the world shall learn your love and follow where your feet have trod, till, glorious from your heaven above, shall come the city of our God!
Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service, especially during this year of the Chapel’s restoration during which we will gather to worship God in different places across Duke’s campuses.
