Service of Worship

Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

Eleven o'clock in the morning

"Jeremiah Lamenting the Destruction of Jerusalem," by Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn, 1630.

The scripture lessons for this morning juxtapose the human inclination to turn away from God with God's passionate and relentless commitment to seek us out regardless. Jeremiah speaks words of warning against a "foolish" people who do not know God. In 1 Timothy, the author marvels at God's overflowing grace that redeemed him—he, who was once a blasphemer and violent persecutor of God's people. The gospel of Luke offers two stories on what it means for us to be lost and what it means for God to find. It is a gospel of profound love and unbridled celebration.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

MISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

OFFERTORY

The Church's One Foundation      AURELIA by Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)
arr. John Ferguson

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation, yet one over all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: One Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder this world sees her oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping; their cry goes up: "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

Through toil and tribulation and tumult of her war,
She waits, she waits, she waits for peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heavenly chorus! Lord, save us by your grace,
That we, like saints before us, may see you face to face.

—Samuel J. Stone

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

TODAY'S MISSION OF THE MONTH OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Durham Literacy Center (DLC). Since 1985, the DLC has provided tuition-free instruction to more than 12,000 Durham residents and trained over 2,000 literacy tutors. The Durham Literacy Center believes that literacy is a means to life-long learning, achievement of employment goals, and personal growth. Staff and volunteers work to strengthen communications and bonds between people of different cultures. The DLC relies on the public for support to provide services to the needy.
