Service of Worship

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Founders' Sunday

September 21, 2014

Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Bridging Faith and Learning ≈

Today we give thanks to God for the founders of Duke University and their vision. Dean Powery will lead a litany of commemoration after the sermon. We are joined by Charlie Lucas, great-great-great grandson of Washington Duke. Today's scriptures portray the people of God grumbling against God. In Exodus, the Israelites have been released from slavery, but in the midst of the desert wilderness they long for the security and routine of their life in Egypt. In Matthew, Jesus tells the parable of the laborers in the vineyard, each of whom is paid the same daily wage despite having worked a different number of hours. In both readings, God meets the frustration of the people with generosity and provision, as God rains manna on the Israelites and reminds the laborers that their anger grows out of his generosity, not any injustice they themselves have received.

*The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.*

Jesu! The Very Thought Is Sweet

Charles Wood
(1866–1926)

Jesu! the very thought is sweet;
In that dear name all heart-joys meet;
No word is sung more sweet than this,
No sound is heard more full of bliss,
Than Jesus, Jesus, Son of God most high.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

This morning we give thanks for the Duke Dance program—for the ways it trains students in artistic expression and communication incorporating mind, body, and spirit, and for the ways that dance, rhythm, and movement help us to understand and celebrate life.

In Durham, we remember all who have recently lost a loved one and the friends, family, and professionals who walk with them in grief.

OFFERTORY

The Church's One Foundation

arr. John Ferguson
(b. 1941)

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation, yet one over all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: one Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses, with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder this world sees her oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping; their cry goes up: "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

Through toil and tribulation and tumult of her war,
She waits, she waits, she waits for peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heavenly chorus! Lord, save us by your grace,
That we, like saints before us, may see you face to face.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,

If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship are given to the glory of God in thanksgiving for the founding of Duke University by donors to the Gotham fund. The flowers in the Memorial Chapel are given to the glory of God in loving memory of William N. Klove, T'36 (1914–2014), by his family. When Bill was attending Duke, the windows were still being installed in the Chapel, and he was proud to have met and known every president of Duke University. His love for Duke and his legacy was shared with his two daughters, Carole and Karin, who are Duke graduates, and his youngest grandson, William, who is a sophomore at Duke.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund. The Chapel's current focus is to upgrade the Chapel cameras and video capabilities to digital and high definition in order to better serve the thousands of worshippers locally, in Duke Hospital, and around the globe who tune in weekly.

CONCERT BY THE VOCAL ARTS ENSEMBLE—This afternoon at 5:00 p.m. the Vocal Arts Ensemble of Durham, conducted by Rodney Wynkoop, will sing a number of pieces, including James MacMillan's stirring choral piece about political repression (Cantos Sagrados, or Sacred Songs) and Eric Whitacre's extended lament of David for his son Absalom (When David Heard). Chapel Organist Christopher Jacobson will play the demanding organ portions of the Macmillan work and of Chapel Choir member Craig DeAlmeida's "Peace for the Nations." The concert, entitled "The Crystal of Peace," is being performed in conjunction with the UN's International Day of Peace, which is marked on September 21 each year. The event is in Duke Chapel. $10 per ticket. Students free.

STRATEGIC PLAN—To view Duke Chapel's new strategic plan and learn how the Chapel embodies the University's motto, eruditio et religio, bridging faith and learning, visit chapel.duke.edu/mission/strategic-plan.
