"The Rich Man and Lazarus," by the Jesus MAFA Community, Cameroon

This morning's Scripture readings warn of the snares of earthly riches. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells the story of a rich man who ignores the plight of Lazarus, who is sick and impoverished. Both men eventually die, and while Lazarus receives comfort, the rich man is tormented. The rich man is told that he will receive no mercy, and those still alive are warned that if the teachings of the Law and the prophets are ignored, then not even Jesus rising from the dead will be enough to change their hearts. Likewise, the apostle Paul urges us to set our hopes on Christ alone and to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share.

The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 181 (found in the hymnals located in the pew racks)
Ye Servants of God HANOVER

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Holy God, our judge and savior, teach us to be open to your truth and to trust in your love: come now to illuminate your holy word; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Poor man Laz’rus

Traditional Spiritual
arr. Jester Hairston
(1901–2000)

Poor man Laz’rus sick and disabled, he had to eat crumbs from the rich man’s table.

Rich man Divies he lived so well, and when he died he went straight to hell.

Love to shout, I love to sing, I love to praise my heavenly King.

Dip your finger in the water, come and cool my tongue, ‘cause I’m tormented in the flame.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise God above, ye heavenly host,

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,

PRAYERS FOR THE WEEK

This morning we celebrate the Department of Economics and its commitment to train students to understand how individuals and societies choose to employ scarce resources to produce commodities and to distribute them for consumption.

In Durham, we remember those who are taking part in local elections, especially those who as candidates participate in public debate and discussion.

LEARNING THE LITURGY OF THE CHAPEL

We make mistakes. We fail in our responsibilities. We do not live as God would have us live. In other words, we are sinful people. And from our earliest days, we are separated from God and in need of reconciliation. But our sins do not need to hold us in bondage or keep us from God, because in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ we find forgiveness and new life. The realities of our sinfulness and forgiveness are articulated in our prayer of confession and words of assurance. Our confession demonstrates our dependence on God and constant need for grace in order to become like Jesus. In the prayer of confession, we tell the truth about ourselves; in the words of assurance, we hear the greatest truth of God's love and mercy. This truth-telling is followed by peace, which is symbolized in our greeting one another with the phrase "The peace of Christ be with you."

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
