

Duke
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost
September 28, 2014
Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Bridging Faith and Learning ∞

To whom do you ascribe authority? In today's lesson from Exodus, the Israelites challenge Moses' authority over them because their needs are not being met in the wilderness under his leadership. In Matthew's gospel, the chief priests question Jesus' authority as he teaches in the temple. The lesson from Philippians orients disciples to a new way of being—that they take on the mind of Christ. In this passage, Paul casts a vision that every knee will bend and every tongue confess the authority of Jesus as Lord.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.
