Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Founders' Sunday

September 30, 2012

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

Each year near the first Sunday in October, we give thanks to God for the vision and founders of Duke University. Dean Powery will lead a litany of commemoration after the sermon. We are joined by Josiah Charles Trent Lucas, great-great-great grandson of Washington Duke and grandson of Mary Duke Biddle Trent Semans, who passed away in January. The scripture lessons today seek to uphold a strong sense of God's action in our human lives. Although the book of Esther never explicitly mentions God, Esther's triumph over Haman is understood as a story that reveals God's hidden hand at work to orchestrate divine justice. In James' epistle, followers are urged to offer prayers for healing in hope and expectation that God is attentive to the petitions. Mark's gospel recounts Jesus telling his disciples that all who do God's will represent the generosity of God's kingdom, even if they do it unknowingly.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY

Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone;
Chosen of the Lord and precious, binding all the Church in one;
Holy Zion's help forever, and her confidence alone.

Locus iste a Deo factus est, inaestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est.
(This place was made by God, a priceless mystery; it is without reproof.)

To this temple, where we call thee, come, O Lord of Hosts, today!
With thy faithful lovingkindness hear thy people as they pray,
And thy fullest benediction shed within its walls away.

Still your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread;
Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead.
As, O Lord, your deep compassion healed the sick and freed the soul,
Use the love your spirit kindles still to save and make us whole.

Lord, strengthen all who labor that all may find release
From fear of rattling saber, from dread of war's increase;
When hope and courage falter, Lord, let your voice be heard;
With faith that none can alter, your servants undergird.

Risen Lord, shall yet the city be the city of despair?
Come today, our Judge, our Glory, be its name, "The Lord is there!"

Keep bright in us the vision of days when war shall cease,
When hatred and division give way to love and peace,
Till dawns the morning glorious when truth and justice reign,
And Christ shall rule victorious o'er all the world's domain.

(Choir and Congregation standing, at the direction of the conductor)

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain;
What they gain from thee forever with the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

Laud and honor to the Father, laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit, ever three and ever one;
One in might and one in glory, while unending ages run.

Amen.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER

Today we welcome Dr. Stanley Hauerwas as the Sterly and Pelham Wilder, Jr., Distinguished Guest Preacher. He is the Gilbert T. Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics at Duke Divinity School. Professor Hauerwas has sought to recover the significance of the virtues for understanding the nature of the Christian life. This search has led him to emphasize the importance of the church, as well as narrative for understanding Christian existence. His work cuts across disciplinary lines as he is in conversation with systematic theology, political theory, philosophical theology and ethics, as well as the philosophy of social science and medical ethics. He was named "America's Best Theologian" by Time Magazine in 2001. Dr. Hauerwas, who holds a joint appointment in Duke Law School, delivered the prestigious Gifford Lectureship at the University of St. Andrews, Scotland, in 2001. His book, A Community of Character: Toward a Constructive Christian Social Ethic, was selected as one of the 100 most important books on religion of the 20th century. Dr. Hauerwas recently authored War and the American Difference: Theological Reflections on Violence and National Identity (Baker Academic, 2011).
