BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Opening Sunday

Twelfth Sunday After Pentecost

Sunday, September 1, 2019, 11:00 a.m.

The poor invited to the feast
JESUS MAFA, 1973

The lectionary passages for today are fitting for this Opening Sunday of the academic year. The theme of abundance and welcome is a common thread in these scriptural passages. The Hebrews passage encourages mutuality of love, sharing of resources, and caring for strangers as a way to live faithfully in Christian community. Luke's parable of the wedding banquet turns traditional notions of power upside down as Jesus calls on his disciples to extend radical hospitality, welcoming those people on the fringes of society into the very center of the celebration. Following the invitation of these scriptures, the Chapel strives to be a community where all are invited and all are welcome. In an act of welcome and prayer, Dr. Zebulon Highben is installed today as the Director of Chapel Music.

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

your love, rejoicing in the righteousness that is ours through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 112 | The refrain is introduced by the cantor then sung by all. The cantor and choir sing the verses; the congregation sings the refrain as indicated.

Refrain Arranged by Hal Hopson (b. 1933)

God is our ref - uge; God is our strength.

Alleluia. Happy are those who fear the Lord and take delight in God's commands!
Their children have power in the land;
the children of the righteous will be blessed.
Wealth and riches be in their house, and their justice will stand forever.
Light shines in the darkness for the upright,
for those who are just and full of compassion. Refrain

Happy are those who lend with good grace and are honest in all their dealings.
The righteous will never fail; they will be remembered forever.
For them, evil rumors hold no fear;
their faith is strong; they trust in the Lord.
They are not worried or afraid; they are certain to triumph over their foes.
They are generous and righteous, and they will always be honored.
The wicked see and in anger grind their teeth;
they melt away, their desire comes to nothing. Refrain

Offertory Music

Come, Share the Spirit

Robert A. Hobby
(b. 1962)

Come, share the Spirit, God has called us to ventures in the life of faith, to bring good tidings to the needy, to tell of victory over death.
Christ speaks and all of life is new; God's word is pure and it is true.

Come, drown your sins beneath the waters
where life flows from the granite rock.
The stone from which our Lord has risen,
our cornerstone and building block.
Christ speaks and raises from the dead all those who hear the living word.

Come, God invites us to the banquet that every people soon will share, with shouts of joy and loud thanksgiving
before God's throne we will appear.

Christ speaks and bids us sit and dine; his body, bread, his blood, the wine.
Come, let us tell the gospel story, how God has given us new birth and raises us to live for others, to speak good news throughout the earth.
Christ speaks and life is come again. Good news, good news for everyone.
Text: Gracia Grindal (b. 1943), alt.

TODAY'S MUSIC | The hymns and anthems in today's service are united by a common theme: welcome. God invites us to gather as one body, to be united in the love of Jesus, and to "swell the glad refrain" of praise alongside apostles, prophets, and martyrs from every time and place. The diverse sources of this morning's music—from America, Zimbabwe, France, England, and Germany; sung in Latin and Shona and English—remind us of the universal nature of God's welcome and the wonderful diversity of God's people.
