

SERVICE OF WORSHIP Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost Sunday, September 8, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

Cara B. Hochhalter, Even the Dogs, 2019.

"Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead." So ends today's reading from James, which reminds Christians that we should not show partiality to the wealthy or wellconnected but instead remember the poor and care for our siblings who are in need. In doing this, we fulfill the law to love our neighbors as ourselves. Such acts of mercy point to the kingdom of God foretold in Isaiah—the kingdom in which fearful hearts are made brave, water restores parched earth, and silence gives way to songs of joy. Jesus' healing miracles in Mark's gospel are a sign of that kingdom already breaking in among us. May our ears be opened to receive this good news and our mouths be opened to share it with a world in need.

Psalmody

(1927–2024)
Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.
While I live will I praise the LORD:
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
Put not your trust in princes, in whom there is no help;
nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
Happy are they that have God for their help,
whose hope is in the LORD their God:
Which made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is therein,
which giveth food to the hungry,
and opens the eyes of the blind:
The LORD raiseth them that are bowed down:
The LORD loveth the righteous:
And the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

Emma Lou Diemer

Humble Service

Larry L. Fleming (1936–2003) Lord, whose love in humble service bore the weight of human need, who upon the cross forsaken, worked your mercy's perfect deed: we, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart; consecrating to your purpose ev'ry gift which you impart.

Still your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread; Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead. As you Lord, in deep compassion healed the sick and freed the soul. By your spirit send your power to our world to make it whole.

As we worship, grant us vision, till your love's revealing light in its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight, making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear, stirring us to ardent service, your abundant life to share.

—Albert F. Bayly (1901–1984), alt.

*Doxology

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

ENGAGE

University Prayer of Thanksgiving | Each week, we focus on a different campus unit, school, or department for whom to give thanks to God for their service and contributions to the wider university community and beyond. Today, we give thanks for Duke Law.

Restrooms in Divinity School | Public restrooms are available in the Divinity School. To access them, exit the Chapel through the main front doors and enter the Divinity School. Restrooms are along the hallway in the Divinity School.

Tour After the Service | Learn about the history, architecture, and life of Duke Chapel on a tour immediately following the service. The tour is free and lasts about forty-five minutes. Meet the docent outside in front of the Chapel.

Choral Evensong This Afternoon | Our service of Choral Evensong, today at 4:00 p.m., follows the liturgy of the Book of Common Prayer and features from the English cathedral tradition, led by the Chapel's Evensong Singers. This semester Evensong features music by the Anglo-Irish composer Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924) as we commemorate his 100th anniversary. A prolific composer of symphonic, chamber, vocal, and choral music, Stanford's sacred music has remained popular since his death.

Participate in Theology Underground | Theology Underground is a series of guided conversations about how culture, identity, and race impact the way we live out our faith and beliefs. To honor the 100th anniversary of the birth of the literary giant James Baldwin, this year's series will engage the intersections of theology and black literature. The first meeting will be this Tuesday, September 10, from 6:30–8:00 p.m. in the Mary Lou Williams Center's "Lower Lou" Programming Space.

LGBTQ+ Fellowship | The Congregation at Duke Chapel invites members of the LGBTQ+ community and allies to attend the monthly fellowship gathering on the third Sunday of each month from 12:30–1:30 p.m. in the Chapel kitchen, and by Zoom. The next meeting will be next Sunday, September 15. For more information or the Zoom link, please email congregation@duke.edu.

Bach Cantata Concert | Johann Sebastian Bach's church cantatas are often considered the pinnacle of German sacred music, works whose theological depth and emotional resonance touch deep places in the human soul. In this year's Bach Cantata Series, we follow Bach through the various stages of his career, from his earliest appointments in Arnstadt and Mühlhausen, to Weimar, and to the culmination of his work in Leipzig. The theme of the first concert of the year is "Arnstadt and Mühlhausen: Chamber Cantatas." It will be held Sunday, September 15, at 5:00 p.m. in Duke Chapel and be preceded by a pre-concert lecture at 4:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel at Duke Divinity School. There is no charge for admission. See the full music schedule for the year at chapel.duke.edu/music.

Held on the weekend of October 4–6, the pilgrimage is led by DurhamCares, a nonprofit with a mission to foster collaboration, develop leaders, and educate the people of Durham to care for their neighbors in holistic ways. Space on the pilgrimage is limited. The deadline for registering is September 19. To learn more and sign up, contact the Chapel's Minister for Intercultural Engagement, the Rev. Racquel Gill at racquel.gill@duke.edu.

Carillon Recital | Dr. Aaron Colston, a Duke Chapel carillonneur, will present a recital on the Chapel's bells on Sunday, September 22, at 5:00 p.m. The performance is part of the Chapel's J. Samuel Hammond Carillon Recital Series. To enjoy the music, bring a lawn chair or blanket to listen from Abele Quad. The recital will be presented rain or shine, and will also be streamed live. Apply to Be a Chapel Scholar | Chapel Scholars are students from across Christian traditions who seek to discern God's calling through study, community, and mentorship.
