Service of Worship

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

October 9, 2016

Eleven o'clock in the morning

This morning's Scripture readings speak of God's plans for our flourishing. The prophet Jeremiah writes God's commands to the exiled Israelites: to build houses, plant gardens, raise families and seek the welfare of their city of exile. The apostle Paul urges us to be workers approved by God, and in Luke's Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers. The Lord has good plans for us to grow even in difficult situations, and calls us to give of ourselves in love.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation. The Chapel welcomes families with children. If at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement.

*Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by your name;
you are mine.*

When you walk through the waters, I'll be with you;
you will never sink beneath the waves.
When the fire is burning all around you,
you will never be consumed by the flames.

When the fear of loneliness is looming,
then remember I am at your side.
When you dwell in the exile of a stranger,
remember you are precious in my eyes.

You are mine, O my child, I am your Father, and I love you with a perfect love.

LEARNING THE LITURGY OF THE CHAPEL

To hear God's word to us, we need help. Specifically, we need God's Holy Spirit. The skill of listening to God's voice is one that can be developed with practice, yet it is always the Spirit that enables us to hear, interpret, and understand the divine word. The Spirit opens our hearts and minds, as well as our eyes, ears, and hands, so that we may receive what God would communicate to us. As we pray the "prayer of illumination", we ask God to shine light on the scriptures that they may be the word of the Lord that shines light on us, the church gathered in worship.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by Joshua Bond in memory of his grandparents, William R. and Jane C. Moore.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support our Mission of the Month. The Society of St. Andrew works with volunteers to rescue produce that is left in fields after harvest and what produce distributors are not able to sell. The organization then distributes this produce to local food pantries, soup kitchens, and food banks. In 2015, SoSA worked with 11,250 volunteers to share more than 11 million servings of produce to hungry people in North Carolina. Donations to the Society of St. Andrew help pay for freight of large loads of produce from distributors and help cover the cost of coordinating gleanings. More information is available at endhunger.org.

TODAY'S GUEST PREACHER—Today we are pleased to welcome the Rev. Dr. Cheryl Bridges Johns as the Howard C. Wilkinson Distinguished Guest Preacher. Rev. Dr. Bridges Johns is Professor of Discipleship & Christian Formation at the Pentecostal Theological Seminary in Cleveland, Tennessee. Her work has included several creation care initiatives—including “Scientists and Evangelicals Initiative on the Care of Creation”—and she has been actively involved in numerous ecumenical initiatives. Her published works include Pentecostal Formation: A Pedagogy Among the Oppressed and Finding Eternal Treasures (Wipf & Stock Pub, 2010). She is co-pastor of the New Covenant Church of God, a church she and her husband, Jackie, planted in 1989. She holds a B.A. from Lee College (1975), an M.A. from Wheaton College (1976) and a Ph.D. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (1987).

TODAY'S GUEST CHOIR—Today we welcome the Choir of Men and Boys from Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Columbia, South Carolina. In addition to singing for the service this morning, they will also sing Choral Evensong in the Chapel this afternoon at 4:00 p.m. Drawn from Columbia and throughout South Carolina the choir consists of boy trebles, grades 3–8. They are supported by a team of professional men and former choristers who tour and record with them regularly. The choir last toured to Duke Chapel in 2010.

CONGRATULATIONS—On Thursday, September 29, at the Founder's Day Convocation, our own Oscar Dantzler was one of two recipients of the University Medal, the highest honor given by the University.

PUBLIC CONVERSATION—In a world worried about terror, the Chapel will host a “Bridge Panel” conversation about peace. Three Duke faculty members will participate in the panel discussion “Peace in an Age of Terror” on Monday, October 24, at 12:30 p.m. in the Chapel: Dr. Valerie Cooper, associate professor of Black Church Studies at Duke Divinity School; Dr. Stanley Hauerwas, Gilbert T. Rowe Professor Emeritus of Divinity and Law; and Dr. Omid Safi, director of Duke's Islamic Studies Center and a professor of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies. Chapel Dean Luke A. Powery will moderate the conversation.
