Service of Worship

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, October 16, 2016
Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Bridging Faith and Learning ~

"Jacob and the Angel," by Annette Gandy Fortt (b. 1944)

Today's Scripture readings invite us into intimate relationship with God. In Genesis, Jacob wrestles with a mysterious being who commends him for his perseverance. By persevering with his relationship with God, Jacob is renamed as Israel, and blessed as the patriarch of the Lord's chosen people. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the unjust judge, who eventually grants justice to a widow because of her persistent pleas. Jesus says that if even fallible humans can grant justice, how much more will God hear the cries of those who call out in faith, trusting in Christ.

The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please know there is a nursery in the Chapel basement. On this Communion Sunday, families with children are invited to sit up front, so they can better observe The Great Thanksgiving.

The congregation is invited to reflect silently during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

O Thou Sweetest Source of Gladness

Charles Wood
(1866-1926)

O Thou sweetest Source of gladness, light's all lovely fountain head,
Who, alike in joy and sadness, leavest none unvisited;
Breath of Godhead, highest King, who upholding everything.
Wilt uphold, with love undying—Hear, O hear me humbly crying.

From thy throne, as April shower, thou descendest, heavenly One,
Freighted with thy sevenfold dower, from the Father, and the Son:
Bring me noble Guest divine, God's own blessings they are thine,
Freely deal at thy good pleasure, fill me in abundant measure.

Save, uphold, and go before me, fainting, be my staff and rod:
Dying, to new life restore me; buried, be my grave, O God.
From the dust when I arise, come, exalt me to the skies,
Where thou within realms supernal, feed thy saints with joys eternal.

LEARNING THE LITURGY OF THE CHAPEL

A representative of the gathered community stands to read selections from God's story told in the Old and New Testaments. Worshipers are welcome to use the pew Bibles in order to read as well as hear the texts for the day. Through the choral anthem, the choir often lifts up themes within the readings to help the gathered people experience and understand God's word. The story of God is revealed in the Bible through a variety of genres such as letters, history, and poems. The Bible, written over thousands of years, helps us meet the one, true God, revealed fully in Jesus, the living Word of God who is present with us now.

This year there will be a diverse program of music as part of the Chapel's Year of Celebration. These are the upcoming events:

Tonight, 5:00 p.m.—Organ Recital Series:
