

Duke
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

Parents and Families Weekend

October 28, 2012

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Christ Giving Sight to Bartimaeus," by William Blake, 1799-1800.

The Chapel is pleased to extend welcome to all parents and other family members who are worshipping with us today. In today's gospel lesson a blind man ironically shows true perception by calling out loudly and casting himself on Jesus' mercy for healing. The lessons from Job and Hebrews also emphasize God's mercy. In Job, God blesses the very sources of Job's suffering, and in Hebrews we are offered encouragement in our struggles with the words that Jesus "always lives to make intercession" for us.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

ANTHEM

Amazing Grace

Traditional
arr. Ed Lojeski

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound

That saved a wretch like me!

I once was lost but now am found,

Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,

And grace, my fears relieved;

How precious did that grace appear

The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares

I have already come;

'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far,

And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,

Bright shining as the sun,

We've no less days to sing God's praise

Than when we'd first begun.

—John Newton (1725-1807)

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON—Hebrews 7:23-28 (NT page 208)

O Christ, the Healer

SERMON—Hearing the Call

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

MISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

OFFERTORY

Praise the Lord, O My Soul

John Rutter
(b. 1945)

Praise the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God. O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man: for there is no help in them. For when the breath of man goeth forth he shall turn again to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish. Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help: and whose hope is in the Lord his God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: who keepeth his promise for ever; who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: who feedeth the hungry. The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giveth sight to the blind. The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous. The Lord careth for the strangers; he defendeth the fatherless and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down. The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for evermore: and throughout all generations. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

—Psalm 146

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks to the Department of Biomedical Engineering. We celebrate its vision to create engineering knowledge and novel biomedical technology that improve the human condition through the advancement of clinical care and biomedical science. The ushers bring forward an artificial hip joint to the altar.

In Durham we pray for the people who bring food to us. We remember farmworkers, food service workers, and the people within local ministries who seek to be mindful of the principles of sustainable agriculture. A representative brings a basket of fresh North Carolina apples to the altar.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S FLOWERS—Today's flowers are presented for the glory of God and in honor of visiting parents and family members by the Assistant Vice-President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students Office, and Duke Parents Program.

TODAY'S MISSION OF THE MONTH OFFERING—The Duke Habitat Chapter is one of the largest and most active student organizations on campus. Since 2002 It has co-sponsored and helped build six homes. Last year Duke Habitat enhanced its bi-annual partnership with the Duke-Durham Neighborhood Partnership in order to co-sponsor and fund a house every year. Duke Habitat is currently $13,000 toward the $25,000 goal. Contributions will finish this pledge and help launch the 2013 campaign. Habitat's mission is derived from key theological concepts: the necessity of putting faith into action, the "economics of Jesus," and the "theology of the hammer." Partner families work closely with volunteers, investing 240-300 hours of their own labor, or "sweat-equity," in building their homes. Because partner families and Duke students do nearly 80% of the work on Habitat homes, a Duke Chapter house fosters close connections between the students of Duke University and the people of Durham.

DUKE CHAPEL EVENTS LISTSERV—If you would like to receive emails about upcoming Chapel-sponsored events such as concerts, talks, and special worship services, please visit chapel.duke.edu/contact and choose "Receive Event Emails" or send an email to Kelsey Hallatt at kelsey.hallatt@duke.edu.

PARKING AT DUKE CHAPEL—Do you like to attend Chapel events on evenings and weekends but dislike the difficulty and cost of parking on campus? Duke Parking and Transportation services offers a Night Permit for $20 annually, which allows you to park on campus after 5:00 p.m. and on weekends. There is no charge to park on Sunday mornings until 1:00 p.m. The permit is renewed annually in August. Please contact Parking at 919-684-PARK for more information.

ALL HALLOWS' EVE SERVICE OF WORSHIP

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 10:30 P.M.

Join the Chapel community and the Duke Choral Vespers Ensemble for a candlelight service of worship and remembrance. This unique service reflects on the role of saints in the faith and in our own lives through music, scripture, and readings of particular saints from the Christian tradition. The sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
