BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP
Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, October 9, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

JESUS MAFA, Healing of the Ten Lepers, 1973.

The prophet Micah asks the question, what does the Lord require of you? The response is “to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” In the lesson from Luke’s Gospel, Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem when he encounters ten lepers. These people cry out to Jesus for mercy, and Jesus heals them and sends them to show themselves to the priest. Upon realizing he was made clean, only the Samaritan man—the outsider—returned to give thanks. Jesus then asks why the others have not returned to give God praise for their healing. The Lord also invites us to respond with thanksgiving when we are made well. In the passage from 2 Timothy, Paul reflects on his own suffering and encourages endurance in Christ—the one who is faithful, even when we are faithless.

O Christ, Your Heart, Compassionate

KINGSFOLD

*Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Call to Prayer

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People | The congregation responds to each petition:

People: Hear our prayer.

Mission of the Month

Offertory Anthem

Balm in Gilead

arr. M. Roger Holland II

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole.
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged, and think my work's in vain,
but then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

Don't ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend, and if you lack for knowledge, he'll ne'er refuse to lend.

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul, you can tell the love of Jesus and say, “He died for all! He died for all!”

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole.
There is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul,
to heal the soul; to heal the sin-sick soul.

Thanksgiving

*Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord’s Prayer | All are encouraged to pray the Lord’s Prayer in the language of their choosing.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Today's Guest Preacher | We welcome today as our guest preacher Bishop Peter Storey, the Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Distinguished Professor Emeritus of the Practice of Christian Ministry at Duke Divinity School. In the 1960s, Professor Storey was chaplain to Nelson Mandela and other political prisoners on Robben Island. Later, he and the then Bishop Desmond Tutu led the South African Council of Churches in the church struggle against the apartheid regime. In the 1980s, he was the presiding bishop over the nation's two million Methodists. Soon after, he became the chairperson of the National Peace Accord intervening in political violence in his region. After liberation, Storey was involved in the selection of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission. His memoir, titled Protest at Midnight: Ministry to a Nation Torn Apart, was published this year in the United States.

Today's Music | The anthem that the Chapel Choir sings as a part of the confession this morning, Bawo Thixo Somandla, is written in Xhosa, one of the most widespread languages in South Africa. The text of Bawo is said to have been spontaneously written on the blackboard by Mxolisi Matyila when he had been dismissed from the teaching profession due to the discriminatory policies of the apartheid regime. Matyila, a talented choral conductor and songwriter, then composed the music. Over time, it was passed from community to community and became a popular song of protest during the later apartheid years. Though the text is tinged with sadness, the music is uplifting—a prevalent dichotomy in Xhosa songs of this era. (note by Scott Tucker)

Mission of the Month | All of today's checks written to Duke University Chapel will go to support the Society of St. Andrew (SoSA), a nation-wide gleaning organization that works to bring people together to harvest and share healthy food, reduce food waste, and build communities through sharing food. SoSA works with volunteers, feeding agencies, and farmers to rescue food that is left in the field and then given directly into the hands of people that need it. SoSA focuses on building relationships in communities to make a difference in the lives of the people that it serves. Send checks to: Duke University Chapel, Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708-0974. You are invited to give online at chapel.duke.edu/offering.

Today's Flowers | Flowers for today's worship service are provided by the generosity of the Erlenbach Family Trust.

Accessibility | Large print hymnals and worship guides are available at the visitor relations desk. Hearing assistance units are available at the AV console in the rear of the Chapel.

Donations may be placed on the back pew today and next Sunday, October 16.

Blessing of the Animals Service This Afternoon | Animals and their owners are invited to join ministers and the Durham Children's Choir today at 3:00 p.m. in front of the Chapel for the Blessing of the Animals worship service.
