BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP
Parents and Family Weekend
Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, October 16, 2022, 11:00 a.m.

Annette Gandy Fortt, Jacob and the Angel.

Today we welcome all who have come for Parents and Family Weekend at Duke. In our service, we will commission our newest Chapel Scholars as they join this Christian community of students seeking to grow in faith and learning. The scripture lessons for today emphasize persistence and determination. Genesis tells the story of Joseph wrestling with God through the night. At the end of the night of struggle, Jacob demanded a blessing and received a new name, even as he came face to face with God and lived. The Gospel lesson from Luke details the story of the persistent widow who sought justice again and again until the judge relented and granted her request. The persistence and determination of both the widow and Jacob mirror God's persistence and reveal the tenacity of love and faith.

Commissioning of Chapel Scholars | New and current Chapel Scholars gather on the chancel steps, facing the Rev. Bruce Puckett, Assistant Dean of Duke Chapel, and the Rev. Dr. Luke A. Powery, Dean of the Chapel.

Dean Powery: Chapel Scholars walk together on a journey of exploration and formation through relationships and practices that nurture and embody the intellectual, ethical, and spiritual life. This journey includes listening to God among peers and pastors, at work, in Durham, and beyond. Are you ready to meet God and discover more of who God has made you to be?

New Scholars: We are.

Rev. Puckett: We thank you, Lord, for the churches that have formed these students, and for the communities on campus that nourish and enrich their faith. Use the ministries of the Chapel to form these students in your likeness and bless these Chapel Scholars as they listen for your voice and respond to your call, and show them how to find freedom in your service.

New Scholars: Amen.

Dean Powery: Lord Jesus, you are the way, the truth, and the life. Walk with us on the way, that we may find your truth and enter your new life.

Congregation: Give us the grace to grow in love and friendship with you and with each other. Amen.

Call to Prayer

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People | The congregation responds to each petition:

People: Hear our prayer.

Offertory Anthem

I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes

Leo Sowerby
(1895–1968)

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh even from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:

He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper; thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil, He shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth and forevermore. Amen.

Choral Evensong Today | The Chapel's Choral Evensong worship service will be held today at 4:00 p.m. Evensong is a historic liturgy derived from Vespers and Compline, ancient monastic prayer services of the Christian church. Evensong at the Chapel follows the Book of Common Prayer.

Back Pew Collection | The October Back Pew collection is for the Society of St. Andrew, which gleans crops from local farms for distribution to those in need. Donations may be placed on the back pew today.

Picnic Today | All are invited to attend the Congregation's Potluck Picnic today, October 16, from 3:30–6:00 p.m. Tacos, water, and games will be provided. Please bring a dish and good cheer to share. The picnic will be held at the Piney Woods Park picnic shelter, 400 E. Woodcroft Parkway, Durham.

Student-Led Groups Sing at the Chapel Next Sunday | Next Sunday, October 23, at 4:00 p.m., two student-led groups will perform in the Chapel. To volunteer, please contact congregation@duke.edu.

ENGAGE

Examen Prayer | Simple practices can lead to profound impact. This is the case for many who use the Examen Prayer as a simple, five-step daily reflection. The prayer helps individuals recognize God's presence in the activities of life to discover where God may be leading them and to identify the spiritual growth God desires. All are invited to attend a workshop on "The Examen Prayer: A Daily Reflection on God's Presence" to be held on Saturday, October 29, from 9:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church in Durham. Mark Shaw, pastoral assistant for spiritual formation for the Congregation and an experienced spiritual director, will lead the workshop. For detailed information and to register, please contact congregation@duke.edu.

All Hallows' Eve and All Saints' Requiem Eucharist Services | The Chapel's All Hallows' Eve service on Monday, October 31, at 10:30 p.m. is a festival in the church that recalls the faith and witness of those who have carried on and cherished the Christian faith throughout history. The service celebrates the Church's continuing communion with these men and women and memorializes the recently deceased. It comprises scripture readings, testimonies about saints, and anthems. The next day, Tuesday, November 1, at 7:00 p.m. there will be an All Saints' Requiem Eucharist featuring the rarely heard Requiem setting by twentieth-century, French composer Alfred Desenclos.

You're Preaching Speaking To The Choir! | Do you have a burning question for the Duke Chapel Choir? Have you ever wondered how often they practice? What some of their favorite hymns are? Do the robes have pockets? Inquiring minds want to know! Come and hear the stories of our Choir members after worship on October 30th. Meet in the lounge in the lower level of the Chapel for food, drinks, and time for great conversation.

Organ Recital Nov. 6 | Monica Czausz Berney will give the next performance in the Organ Recital Series on Sunday, November 6, at 5:00 p.m. Berney is the director of music and artistic ministries at King of Glory Lutheran Church in Dallas, Texas. A first-prize winner in several competitions, she has appeared at significant venues across the United States and has also performed at numerous conventions of the American Guild of Organists and the Organ Historical Society. Her recital program in the Chapel will feature the Flentrop organ. Admission is free.
