SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
Sunday, October 21, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Detail, The Lord Answering Job Out of the Whirlwind,
William Blake, 1805

In this morning's scripture reading from Job, the Lord thunders out of the whirlwind, declaring his sovereign majesty. All creation is under the care and authority of the Lord, who reveals himself to Job as the God who speaks. In Mark's Gospel, James and John make an audacious request of Jesus—to sit at his right and left hand in the glory of his Kingdom. As the other disciples react angrily, Jesus seeks to reveal the motivation for their ambitions, by teaching that honor in the Kingdom is reserved for those who serve others, not lord it over them. God has spoken fully and finally through Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, who humbly came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Response

Commissioning of Chapel Scholars | The new Chapel Scholars gather on the chancel steps, facing the Rev. Joshua Lazard, C. Eric Lincoln Minister for Student Engagement, and the Rev. Bruce Puckett, Assistant Dean of the Chapel.

Dean Puckett: Chapel Scholars walk together on a journey of discernment which includes listening to God in the classroom, among peers and pastors, in conversation, and at work, in Durham and beyond. Are you ready to meet God and discover more of who God has made you to be?

New Scholars: We are.

Rev. Lazard: We thank you, Lord, for the churches that have formed these students, and for the communities on campus that nourish and enrich their faith. Bless these Chapel Scholars as they listen for your voice and respond to your call, and show them how to find freedom in your service.

New Scholars: Amen.

Dean Puckett: Lord Jesus, you are the way, the truth, and the life. Walk with us on the way, that we may find your truth and enter your new life.

Congregation: Give us the grace to grow in love and friendship with you and with each other. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Insanae et vanae curae

Franz Joseph Haydn
(1732–1809)

*Insanae et vanae curae invadunt mentes nostras, saepe furore replent corda, privata spe,
Quid prodest O mortalis conari pro mundanis,
si coelos negligas,
Sunt fausta tibi cuncta, si Deus est pro te.*

Vain and raging cares invade our minds,
Madness often fills the heart, robbed of hope,
O mortal man, what does it profit to endeavour at worldly things, if you should neglect the heavens?
If God is for you, all things are favorable for you.

RECEIVE PRAYER | Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.

LEARNING THE LITURGY: GOSPEL READING AND PROCESSION | People often wonder, “Why do we read the gospel from the center aisle?” We read the gospel lesson—the readings from the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—from the center of the sanctuary because the story of Jesus is the center of the church’s faith and life. The gospel tells the story of God who in Jesus came and lived in the midst of the people. Placing its reading at the center of our worship reflects this movement of God becoming flesh among God’s people. As the reader processes to the center, the people turn to face the gospel reader to embody the way we turn our lives to Christ in faith and discipleship. We sing a hymn together as the reader follows the cross to the center. The lyrics of the gradual hymn often connect directly to the gospel reading for the day, highlighting aspects of the passage for deeper consideration.
