

CHORAL EVENSONG

Sunday, October 26, 2025

For the second time this semester, the Chapel's Bennett & Giuttari continuo organ accompanies the canticles in Philip Moore's service for St. John's College, Cambridge. Moore's anthem As the Father has loved me was written for the 2007 Royal Maundy Service held in Manchester Cathedral. A meandering solo melody from the organ dialogues with the choir's statement of this familiar text. Moore highlights our charge to "greater love" in his arch-shaped anthem. Guy James describes Brumel's Sicut lily as a "perfect miniature... reflecting the delicacy of the flower with his simple but elegant setting."

Organ Voluntary Chorale (Symphony no. 2, op. 20) Louis Vierne (1870–1937)

Introit Sicut lily inter spinas Antoine Brumel (c. 1483–1513)

Sicut lily inter spinas, sic amica mea inter filias.

As the lily among the thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

—Song of Solomon 2:2

Collect of the Day

O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; Mercifully grant, that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem

As the Father has Loved Me

P. Moore

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you. Continue ye in my love.
If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love:
Even as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.
This is my commandment: that ye love one another, even as I have loved you.
Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends

—Gospel of St. John 15:9-10, 12-13

*Hymn | UMH 683
