SERVICE OF WORSHIP

All Saints' Sunday

Sunday, November 3, 2019, 11:00 a.m.

God with Angels and Saints

Mosaic, Philippines, c. late twentieth century

On All Saints' Sunday we celebrate the life, work, and witness of God's people, living and deceased. We remember our loved ones and forebears in the faith who have died in Christ. With the apostle Paul, we give thanks for saints who "live for the praise of Christ's glory" through lives of faith and service. We honor those whom Jesus blesses in today's gospel—the poor, the hungry, the mourning, and the persecuted. At the Lord's table we are bound together in one communion with all of these saints, both now and throughout eternity.

Greeting

*Opening Litany

- Minister: There is a time for everything, for all things under the sun:
- People: A time to be born and a time to die, a time to laugh and a time to cry, a time to dance and a time to mourn, a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to forget and a time to remember.
- Minister: This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life. We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding. We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth.
- People: As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and insight born of faith.

Offertory Anthem

Hark, I Hear the Harps Eternal

arr. Alice Parker
(b.1925)

Hark, I hear the harps eternal ringing on the farther shore,
As I near those swollen waters with their deep and solemn roar.

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, praise the Lamb!
Hallelujah, hallelujah, glory to the great I AM!

And my soul, though stained with sorrow, fading as the light of day,
Passes swiftly o'er those waters, to the city far away.

Souls have crossed before me saintly, to that land of perfect rest;
And I hear them singing faintly in the mansions of the blest.

Text: attr. F. R. Warren, 1878

*Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

*Prayers of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

If you have a gluten allergy, there is a server near the Memorial Chapel who will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

The Souls of the Righteous

Charles Beaudrot
(b.1951)

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall touch them.

They are at peace, they rest from their labors.

For God has made trial of them, and found them to be worthy of himself.
The faithful shall abide with him, for grace and mercy are to his chosen.

TODAY'S MUSIC | The music in today's service moves from remembrance to celebration as we mark our oneness with the saints as members of Christ's body. To begin, the Chapel Choir and soloists lead us in a modern version of a Kontakion, a hymn from the Greek Orthodox Church with origins in the Byzantine empire. Our gradual hymn, I Sing a Song of the Saints of God, was written for a children's hymnal in 1929; its playful imagery reminds us of the diversity of people who "love to do Jesus' will." The communion anthem The Souls of the Righteous was composed by Charles Beaudrot, a former member of the Duke Chapel Choir who resides in Georgia.

ACCESSIBILITY | Large print hymnals and bulletins are available at the visitor desk. Hearing assistance units are available at the rear sound desk.

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN | Children four and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel lower level, beginning at 10:45 a.m. each week.
