All Saints' Sunday

Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday, November 4, 2018, 11:00 a.m.

Celebration,
John August Swanson, 1997

This morning we celebrate All Saints' Sunday as we remember our fellowship with brothers and sisters in Christ across the world and throughout the ages. In this morning's Scripture readings, the apostle John records the spectacular vision revealed to him of Jesus enthroned in glory. Jesus reveals the consummation of all the promises he has fulfilled—God will dwell among his redeemed people, for whom death and crying and pain will be no more. In his Gospel, John records Jesus' raising of Lazarus from death to life, a foretaste of glory for those who have resurrection hope through faith in Christ. Jesus invites those who are thirsty to come to him and receive the inheritance of the children of God. Let us ask for that thirst today.

Greeting and Call to Worship

*Processional Hymn 711

For All the Saints

SINE NOMINE

*Prayers of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

Lord Jesus, you are making all things new: send your Holy Spirit to make us new through the illumination of your holy word; in your holy name we pray, Amen.

New Testament Lesson | Read in Korean

Revelation 21:1–6

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said

* All who are able may stand to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.”

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Response

Call to Prayer

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People | The congregation responds to each petition:

People: Hear our prayer.

Offertory Anthem

Give Us the Wings of Faith

Ernest Bullock
(1890–1979)

Give us the wings of faith to rise

Within the veil, and see

The Saints above, how great their joys,

How bright their glories be.

We ask them, whence their victory came;

They with one united breath,

Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,

Their triumph to his death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod,

His zeal inspired their breast;

And following their incarnate God,
They reached the promised rest.

—Isaac Watts

Doxology

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

A child and youth member of the Congregation at Duke University Chapel bring forward offerings collected in the children and youth Sunday School classes.

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

All Saints' Celebration of Communion | The celebrant and congregation will sing the responses to SINE NOMINE, the tune for "For All the Saints" located on page 711 in the hymnal.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts and raise them to the Lord, and render thanks to God, the Lord of all. With saints and angel hosts we join in song:

All: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Celebrant: You gave yourself, O God, to dwell on earth as Word made flesh and prophecy fulfilled; the saints gave their lives as witness to your grace.

All: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Celebrant: Lord Jesus Christ, the night he was betrayed, with bread and cup, to his disciples said, "This is my blood and body given for you."

All: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Celebrant: Accept our sacrifice of thanks and praise, as we recall Christ's passion and his death, who rose victorious and will come again.

All: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Celebrant: May bread and wine become Christ's flesh and blood; may we unite with him and all the world, and bring us to feast with all the saints in heaven.

All: Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Lord's Prayer | All are encouraged to pray the Lord's Prayer in the language of their choosing. The English version is number 895 in the hymnal.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine | All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Wine is used for Communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the Communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side.

If you have a gluten allergy, there is a server near the Memorial Chapel who will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

Justorum animae

William Byrd
(1543–1623)

*Justorum animae in manu Dei sunt, et non tanget illos tormentum mortis.
Visi sunt oculis insipientium mori: illi autem sunt in pace.*

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there no torment shall touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace.

—Offertory for the Feast of All Saints. Wisdom 3:1–2a,3b.

Choral Benediction

Christ Be with You

Barry Rose
(b. 1934)

Christ be with you, Christ within you, Christ before you,
Christ beside you, Christ to win you, Christ to comfort and restore you.
Christ beneath you. Christ above you, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all who love you, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

TODAY'S FLOWERS | Flowers for today's worship service are given to the glory of God by the Congregation at Duke Chapel in remembrance of those members who have died in the past year: Susan Butler, Betsy Close, Walter Eck, Elizabeth (Betty) Schnople, Elizabeth (Liz) Whaling.

TODAY'S OFFERING | All of today's cash offerings and checks written to Duke University Chapel will be given to the Chapel's Development Fund for Mission and Ministry.

ACCESSIBILITY | Large print hymnals and bulletins are available at the front desk. Hearing assistance units are available at the back left sound desk.

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN | Children four and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel lower level, beginning at 10:45 a.m. each week.

LEARNING THE LITURGY: SERMON | By the mysterious work of the Holy Spirit, the sermon is the Word of God to the community of faith. Each preacher strives to connect the stories and truths of the Bible to our daily lives, offering us the good news of Jesus Christ. Each worshiper is called to listen to the message with openness and faith. Ultimately, however, the sermon is more than preacher and listener, as the Holy Spirit uses the sermon to speak to our hearts and minds. If you discuss the sermon with others, don't be surprised if individuals find meaning in different parts of the sermon. That is the Spirit at work.

ENGAGE

WELCOME TO DUKE CHAPEL | If you have questions about the ministries of Duke Chapel or the Congregation at Duke Chapel, please stop by the Welcome Desk in the narthex. Those staffing the table will be happy to answer your questions.

ARMISTICE DAY NEXT SUNDAY | Each year, the Carillon is tolled eleven times at the eleventh hour, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month to mark Armistice Day. The anniversary falls next Sunday, and is particularly significant as it is 100 years since the end of the Great War. The bell will be tolled eleven times, starting at 11:00 a.m., and special music will also mark the occasion.

CHAPEL TOUR | For a tour of Duke Chapel, meet today's docent near the front steps of the Chapel following the service.

SERMON TALK BACK | After this morning's service, Dean Powery invites university students to meet in room 110 Gray, Divinity School, at 12:30 p.m. for a Sermon Talk Back. This is a time for students to talk with the Dean about his sermon and light refreshments will be served.

BACK PEW COLLECTION | Today and November 11, the Congregation is collecting bus passes and inexpensive cell phones for use by Reconciliation & Reentry partners working with the Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham. Items may be placed on the back pew. Donors may also chose to make a financial donation to purchase these items. Checks may be placed in the offering plate with a note that it is for the back pew collection.

REQUIEM TODAY | An All Saints' Requiem Eucharist Service, led musically by the Chapel's Evensong Singers and Chapel Choir Schola Cantorum, will include composer Gabriel Fauré's Requiem with organ this afternoon, at 4:00 p.m.

TRIPLE T (TUESDAY, TABLE, TALK) | The young adults will meet on Tuesday, November 6, at 6:30 p.m.. in the Chapel lounge, located in the lower level of the Chapel for food, fellowship, and discussion. All are invited to come with a hungry spirit and a hungry stomach. Questions to josh.stanley@duke.edu.

SATURDAY SERVICE PROJECT | Volunteers are needed on Saturday morning, November 10, from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon, to prepare a room at Calvary UMC, 304 E. Trinity Avenue, Durham, for use by the Restorative Justice teams sponsored by Religious Coalition for a Nonviolent Durham. For more information, please contact Carol Gregg at carol.gregg@duke.edu.

LUNCH NEXT SUNDAY | All are welcome to stay after worship next Sunday, November 11, to enjoy lunch with other worshipers. Participants will purchase their own lunch from one of the dining options in the Brodhead Center then gather in the Great Hall for conversation and fellowship.

ORGAN RECITAL | The second concert in the Chapel's Organ Recital Series is next Sunday, November 11, at 5:15 p.m. Dr. Michael Unger, a top prize winner in several prestigious national and international competitions, and now a faculty member at the College-Conservatory of Music, University of Cincinnati, will perform on the Flentrop organ. Admission is free; event parking is $5.

ENGAGE (Continued)

SHELTER DINNER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED | Helpers are needed for lasagna dinners at the Urban Ministries Shelter (410 Liberty Street, Durham) on Sunday, November 11, (5:15 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.) and Wednesday, December 26, (6:15 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.) Please contact Cricket Scovil (scovilj@aol.com) to volunteer to cook two party size lasagnas (12-servings) and help serve, or just provide two cooked lasagnas. Each dinner requires 22 lasagnas and about ten volunteers.

NEW COMMUNITY ARTS SERIES | A new Duke Chapel community arts project, called Always Human: Re-Visioning Justice, examines prisons and mass incarceration from a variety of perspectives and through a variety of media. Currently on the walls of the Chapel's nave are photographs from the Standing on Love exhibition, which is part of the Always Human series. The photographs are portraits of people with family members on death row. A reception for the exhibition will be held in the Chapel on Tuesday, November 13, at 6:15 p.m. Learn more at chapel.duke.edu/justice.

JAZZ VESPERS | This semester's Jazz Vespers worship service will be on Tuesday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m. Jazz Vespers combines the form of the traditional evening vespers service with the musical improvisation of jazz.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CLASSES | Sunday morning Christian Education classes for all ages are offered year-round. All classes held in the lowest level of the Westbrook (WB) building from 9:45–10:45 a.m. and include:

Adult Forum: On November 11, Congregation member Regina Ford will discuss "Are you envious because I AM generous?", a summary of David Green's book Giving It All Away...and Getting It All Back Again: The Way of Living Generously in 0012 Westbrook.
