On this fourth Sunday of Advent we celebrate the visitation of Mary to her relative Elizabeth. Elizabeth herself has miraculously conceived in her old age, and the child who will become John the Baptist leaps for joy in her womb. The child and his mother celebrate that Mary, though a virgin, has conceived Jesus, who will be the Savior of the world. The prophet Micah prophesied this miracle centuries before, declaring that the great ruler of God’s people would be born in humble Bethlehem. Mary rejoices at the favor the Lord has shown her, as she sings praise to God in the song now known as the Magnificat. The faithfulness of God is proclaimed, the One who has come as the incarnate Christ-child to save and redeem us.
During the prelude the congregation is asked to remain prayerfully or meditatively silent. The Chapel welcomes families with children; if at any time during the service your child needs a place for active play, please utilize the nursery in the Box Office on the second floor of Page.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 184 (Please see hymns at back of bulletin.)
  Of the Father’s Love Begotten                        DIVINUM MYSTERIUM

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)
  God of the future, you are coming in power to bring all nations under your rule. We confess that we have not expected your kingdom; we live casual lives, ignoring your promised judgment. We accept lies as truth, exploit neighbors, abuse the earth, and refuse your justice and peace. In your mercy, forgive us. Grant us wisdom to welcome your way, and to seek things that will endure when Christ comes to judge the world. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*PEACE

(All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)
  God our redeemer, as you prepared humble Mary to be the mother of your Son, so prepare our hearts to receive your word now; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
OLD TESTAMENT LESSON—Micah 5:2–5a
Lector: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

SERMON—What to Expect When You Are Expecting

RESPONSE

*RESPONSE HYMN 251
My Soul Proclaims Your Greatness KINGSFOLD

*THE APOSTLES’ CREED
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER
Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
(The congregation responds to each petition: “Hear our prayer.”)

Advent and Christmas Services and Events at Duke Chapel

Christmas Eve—This year we will be celebrating the birth of Jesus at three services, all in Page Auditorium:

- 2:00 p.m. Children’s Service: An interactive service with the singing of Christmas carols suitable for all the family.

- 5:30 p.m. Christmas Eve Worship: The Rev. Dr. Luke Powery, Dean of Duke Chapel will be preaching, and there will be an opportunity to receive Holy Communion after the service for all who wish.

- 11:00 p.m. Lessons and Carols: Our traditional Lessons and Carols, with full musical and choral accompaniment.

Christmas Day—There will be a special playing of Christmas Carillon music from the Chapel belltower from 4–5:00 p.m.
Today’s Flowers—The red poinsettias that adorn the stage are made possible by the Elizabeth Lucina Gotham Memorial Endowment, established by Dr. and Mrs. James H. Semans in loving memory of Elizabeth Gotham. The wreaths on both sides of the front entrance of the Chapel are given to the glory of God in celebration of the Christmas season by Dr. and Mrs. James G. Ferguson, Jr.

Today’s Offering—All of today’s cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel’s PathWays program, which offers students opportunities to discern God’s call through study, artistic expression, counsel, service, and Christian community.

Community Choir at the 11:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Service—All are invited to come and sing in the community choir for the 11:00 p.m. Lessons and Carols service on Christmas Eve. There is a rehearsal from 7-9:00 p.m. on Monday, December 21, and a required rehearsal at 9:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve, both in Page Auditorium. The choir will sing several anthems, including the “Hallelujah Chorus” from Messiah.

Today’s Background Image—The backdrop depicts the Nativity shepherds and wise men from stained glass windows in Duke University Chapel.

Worship Opportunities Each Week at Duke Chapel

Choral Evensong—Sunday at 4 p.m. in Goodson Chapel

Online Mid-Week Prayer—Resumes Wednesday, January 6, at noon via periscope.tv/dukechapel

Choral Vespers—Resumes Thursday, January 14, at 6 p.m. in Goodson Chapel

† Children 4 and younger are invited to the nursery located in the Page box office, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Capacity is limited. Parents are welcome to feed or change infants; pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship.

† Children’s Worship Bulletins™ for ages 3-6 and 7-12, and worship bags for ages 5 and under, are available in the upstairs entryway of Page. Please return bags and clipboards at the end of the service.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. Please email congregation@duke.edu or call 919-684-3917 for information.
The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

Sunday Christian Education Classes—Starting January 3, Sunday morning classes will resume in the lowest level of Duke Divinity School from 9:45–10:45 a.m. New participants are welcome at any time:

Wee Praise: Ages 0-3 with parents or caregivers in 0011 Westbrook.
Godly Play: Ages 4 through 5th graders in 0050 Langford.
Youth Sunday School: For 6th-12th graders in 0013 Westbrook.
Adult Forum: For all adults in 0012 Westbrook.

Adult Forum—Next Sunday, December 27, Brian Stratton will offer the conclusion to the Advent Bible Study, focusing on Epiphany. The study will be held in 0015 Westbrook; youth and adults are welcome to attend.

Holiday Recess—There will be no Sunday morning classes for children and youth on December 27. All classes will resume on January 3.

Alternative Gift Market—Consider giving carpentry tools, a goat, or banana seed bulbs as a Christmas gift this year. After worship today you may make a donation to ZOE ministry in honor of your loved ones. ZOE is an empowerment ministry which enables orphans to move from dire poverty to self-sufficiency in three years. ZOE now works in several African countries as well as India and Guatemala. Your gifts to ZOE will help children form family groups and start a business to sustain themselves. Please stop by the table in the lobby of Page Auditorium for more information.

Youth Christmas Party—Middle and high school students are invited to the annual Youth Christmas party at the Dennehey home today at 5:00 p.m. Students may wear a tacky Christmas sweater, and bring a $5-10 gift if they would like to participate in the Secret Santa gift exchange. This will be Adam Benson’s last Sunday with the youth as Interim Youth Pastor. Please contact Adam Benson, adambenson87@gmail.com, for additional information.

Service Project for College Students—College students on break are needed for an afternoon of service at Genesis Home, a residence for homeless families. On Tuesday, December 22, from 1:30–4:30 p.m., volunteers are needed help empty an office and storage area by moving contents to a storage unit. Please bring work gloves and wear closed-toe shoes. Genesis Home is located at 300 North Queen Street, Durham. To prepare for the work, students will meet at the Old Havana Sandwich Shop, 310 E. Main St., Durham, at noon for lunch. Please contact Carol Gregg (carol.gregg@duke.edu), or the Congregation office (congregation@duke.edu) if you plan to attend.

New Assistant Pastor—The Congregation is deeply grateful to Mr. Adam Benson for his service as the Congregation’s part-time interim youth minister. His thoughtful leadership of the students since August 2015 has been a blessing. Beginning in January, Mr. Andrew Phillips will join the Congregation as Assistant Pastor on a part-time basis, focusing his efforts on youth ministry. In July 2016, Andrew’s position will become full-time.
Of the Father's Love Begotten

Unison

1. Of the Father's love be-got-ten, ere the worlds be-gan to be,
2. O ye heights of heaven, a-dore him; an-gel hosts, his prais-es sing;
3. Christ, to thee with God the Fa-ther, and, O Ho-ly Ghost, to thee, he is Al-pha and O-me-ga, he the source, the end-ing he powers, do-min-ions, bow be-fore him, and ex-tol our God and King;

hymn and chant and high thanks-giv-ing, and un-rea-ried prais-es be:

of the things that are, that have been and that fu-ture years shall see,

DIVINUM MYSTERIUM 87.87.887
My Soul Proclaims Your Greatness

1 My soul proclaims your greatness, Lord; I sing my Savior's praise!

2 To all who live in holy fear your mercy ever flows.

3 To Israel, your servant blest, your help is ever sure;

You looked upon my lowliness, and I am full of grace.

With mighty arm you dash the proud, their scheming hearts expose.

The ruthless you have cast aside, the lowly throned instead;

Now every land and every age this blessing shall proclaim—

Sing glory to the Holy One, give honor to the Word, great wonders you have done for me, and holy is your name.

the hungry filled with all good things, the rich sent off unfed.

and praise the Pow'r of the Most High, one God, by all adored.
People, Look East

1. People, look east. The time is near of the crowning of the year. Make your house fair as you are able, trim the hearth and set the table.

2. Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare, one more seed is planted there. Give up your strength the seed to nourish, that in course the flower may flourish.

3. Stars, keep the watch. When night is dim, one more light the bowl shall shine beyond the frosty weather, bright as sun and moon together.

4. Angels announce with shouts of mirth him who brings new life to earth. Set every peak and valley humming with the word, the Lord is coming.

People, look east and sing today:

Love, the Guest, is on the way.
Love, the Rose, is on the way.
Love, the Star, is on the way.
Love, the Lord, is on the way.

Doxology in Advent: O Come, O Come Emmanuel

There are seven great Advent prayers (Antiphons) that have been prayed since the 7th Century. Each Antiphon begins with “O” and addresses Jesus with a unique name, which comes from the prophecies of Isaiah in the Old Testament.

Each O Antiphon begins with an invocation of the expected Messiah. When read backwards from the bottom up, they form an acrostic for the Latin “Ero Cras” which means, “Tomorrow I shall be with you.” Today the O Antiphons are most familiar to us in the hymn “O come, O come Emmanuel” sung to the tune VENI EMMANUEL.

Sapientia—O come, thou Wisdom from on high...
Adonai—O come, O come, thou Lord of might...
Radix Jesse—O come, thou Root of Jesse’s tree...
Clavis David—O come, thou Key of David...
Oriens—O come, thou Dayspring from on high...
Rex Gentium—O come, Desire of nations...
Emmanuel—O come, O come, Emmanuel...

As the O Antiphons (and subsequently the stanzas of VENI EMMANUEL) tell the Advent story of Christ’s coming, we will sing the story of God’s coming to dwell with us not all at once, but progressively and patiently over the course of four Sundays.

Next Week in Worship at Duke Chapel

Guest Musicians—Next week will be the first Sunday of Christmas, and we will be welcoming Amalgam Brass.

Preacher—The preacher next Sunday morning will be the Rev. Dr. Carol Gregg, Pastor to the Congregation at Duke Chapel.

Offering—Next week’s offering will go towards a non-profit organization in the local area.
Thank you for worshiping with us. We invite you to write a prayer request in the space below and please place it in the offering plate. It will be offered up to God in confidence by the Chapel team this week.
