Christmas is the festival during which Christians celebrate the birth of the Christ child in Bethlehem over 2,000 years ago. This vulnerable infant, long-awaited and yet still a surprise, is the incarnation of God on earth. We recognize the absolute joy and incredible gift of God choosing to be with humankind forever. In this year when traditions are being broken for the safety of family and friends, we nevertheless remember the Christ who came not with fanfare and glory but into the mundane realities of a broken and hurting world. Jesus came as a gift into a world of struggle and need, and he comes even now as a gift into our times of hardship. As we worship together in this service, we joyfully worship the Christ who comes regardless of grand crowds or festive flair. Bless the Lord because Jesus Christ has come to dwell among us as the Son of God, our Savior.

Greeting and Call to Worship

*Opening Hymn | See hymns at the back of the worship guide.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison.

Almighty God, who sent a star to guide the magi to the holy child Jesus: we confess that we have not followed the light of your word. We have not searched for signs of your love in the world, or trusted good news to be good. We have failed to praise your Son’s birth, and refused his peace on earth. We have expected little, and hoped for less. Forgive our doubt, and renew in us all fine desires, so we may watch and wait and once more hear the glad story of our Savior, Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Greeting of Peace | All exchange signs and words of God’s peace.

Minister: The Peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

Proclamation
Prayer for Illumination

Almighty God, as we prepare with joy to celebrate the gift of the Christ child, embrace the earth with your glory and be for us a living hope; in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Isaiah 9:2–7

Choral Anthem (Virtual)
The Lord Shall Come and Not Be Slow Zebulon M. Highben

The Lord shall come and not be slow; his light is soon appearing.
Prepare, you children here below who are these tidings hearing:

*All rise as able Arise, O sleepers, trim your lamps!
Their flames, so swiftly burning,
reveal the path to hope and peace —
the dawn for which you’re yearning.

Come forth, you weary, meek, and poor!
Forget your strife and labor.
Messiah comes to those who toil,
bestowing God’s own favor.

Your King eternal, Lord on high,
in humble form and lowly,
transforms a simple oxen stall
into a throne most holy.

For Christ shall come and not be slow;
his light is now appearing.
Rejoice, you saints on earth below!
His reign of love is nearing.

*Gospel Lesson

Luke 2:1–20

Choral Anthem (Virtual)

Angels We Have Heard on High

Angels we have heard on high
sweetly swinging o’er the plains,
and the mountains in reply
echoing their joyous strains:
Gloria In Excelsis Deo!

Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
Say, what may the tidings be
which inspire your heavenly song?
Gloria In Excelsis Deo!

Come to Bethlehem and see
him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the newborn King!

Minister: The Lord be with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The leader gives thanks, remembering God’s acts of salvation, and concludes:

...We praise you, joining our voices with the celestial choirs and with all the faithful of every time and place, who forever sing to the glory of your name:

\[\text{Holy, holy, Lord most holy, God of power and}\]
\[\text{God of might: heav’n and earth reveal your glory.}\]
\[\text{Hail, hosanna, Lord of light! Blessed be the coming}\]
\[\text{Savior. Hail, hosanna, Lord of light!}\]

...Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

The leader praises the Trinity, concluding:

ENGAGE

'THE MARVEL OF THIS NIGHT' AVAILABLE ONLINE | The Marvel of This Night: Christmas at Duke University Chapel is an hour-long special, produced in 2019 by the Chapel and campus partners, that features beloved Christmas carols accompanied by three of the Chapel's organs as well as traditional scripture readings. In it, all of the Chapel's choirs and a sixteen-piece orchestra perform music from around the world. It is available for viewing online this Christmas season through January 6. You are invited to watch this service online and participate from home by joining in the prayers and singing along to beloved hymns, carols, and spirituals, such as “O Come, All Ye Faithful,” “O Little Town of Bethlehem,” “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing,” and “Go Tell It on the Mountain.” Watch it here.

WATCH A RECORDING OF THIS YEAR'S 'MESSIAH' | This year's online presentation of G.F. Handel's masterpiece Messiah was a creative blend of live solos and instrumental parts with recordings of last year's choruses that include musical scores to encourage participation from home. A recording of the concert is now available online through Epiphany, January 6, at chapel.duke.edu/messiah.

Learn more at chapel.duke.edu/pathways.

STUDENT PREACHER APPLICATIONS | On Sunday, March 21, 2021, we will continue the Chapel tradition of having a student preach for our 11:00 a.m. worship service. Maybe you are a student, or know a student, who has never thought about preaching at the Chapel, but you feel strangely compelled to give voice to what the Spirit of God is stirring in you? Perhaps you have considered what it would be like to preach in the pulpit at Duke Chapel? Or maybe you are just curious what it feels like to write a sermon? Regardless of what motivates you to consider this opportunity, we hope you will consider applying to be the student preacher for this year. Learn more and apply here.

ONLINE EPIPHANY SERVICE | You are invited to participate online in an Epiphany worship service, which will be posted on the Chapel website on January 6 at 8:00 p.m. This prerecorded service will include prayers and scripture readings for the day as well as anthems and hymns from past services. Response Hymn

It Came Upon a Midnight Clear

1. It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old,
   from angels bending near the earth, to touch their harps of gold:
   “Peace on the earth, good will to men,” from heaven’s all-gracious King.
   The world in solemn stillness lay, to hear the angels sing.

2. Still through the cloven skies they come with peaceful wings unfurled, and still their heavenly music floats o’er all the weary world;
   above its sad and lowly plains, they bend on hovering wing,
   and ever o’er its Babel sounds the blessed angels sing.

3. And ye, beneath life’s crushing load, whose forms are bending low,
   when with the ever-circling years shall come the time foretold look now! for glad and golden hours come swiftly on the wing.
   O rest beside the weary road, and hear the angels sing!

4. For lo! the days are hastening on, by prophet seen of old,
   when peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling.
   The world’sankerless stillness lay, to hear the angels sing.
   and the whole world send back the song which now the angels sing.
