SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Christmas Eve

Sunday, December 24, 2023, 8:00 p.m.

Lorenzo Monaco (Piero di Giovanni), The Nativity, ca. 1406–10.

In the ancient world, as nights grew longer, a celebration seemed in order when finally the sun seemed to push back against the long nights, and the days began to lengthen. In a symbolic parallel, the early followers of Jesus glimpsed this festival as an opportunity to celebrate the light of Christ shining through the world, enlightening human hearts and minds. Today, in the depths of our winter, as the days in the Northern Hemisphere grow longer, we celebrate that approaching light as God comes among us in the form of a tiny baby; come into the world to bring peace, love, joy, and hope. Glory to God in the highest!

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Almighty God, who sent a star to guide the magi to the holy child Jesus: we confess that we have not followed the light of your word. We have not searched for signs of your love in the world, or trusted good news to be good. We have failed to praise your Son's birth, and refused his peace on earth. We have expected little, and hoped for less. Forgive our doubt, and renew in us all fine desires, so we may watch and wait and once more hear the glad story of our Savior, Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Minister: The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

Almighty God, as we prepare with joy to celebrate the gift of the Christ child, embrace the earth with your glory and be for us a living hope; in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

*The Great Thanksgiving

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Minister: Give us such joy and peace in your company that our hearts join the angels in the Christmas sky and around your eternal throne singing their hymn of unending praise:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord most ho - ly, God of pow'r and
God of might: heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Hail, hos-an-na, Lord of light! Bless-ed be the com - ing
Sav - ior. Hail, hos-an-na, Lord of light!

Minister: Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a-gain!

Minister: ...all honor and glory are yours, now and forever.

The Lord's Prayer | All are encouraged to pray the Lord's Prayer in the language of their choosing.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine | All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Bread and wine are used for Communion. After a server places bread in your hands, you may receive wine by dipping your bread into the chalice. If you desire gluten-free bread or grape juice, or to drink from a common cup, these are available from servers at the front near Memorial Chapel and near the back opposite the attendant's desk. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

Guest Bell Ensemble | Bell Durham was founded in September 2023 and is Durham's first community handbell ensemble. The goal of this ensemble is to provide high-caliber handbell music at local events and venues and to promote the art of handbells in Durham and beyond. The ensemble is led by Mitchell Eithun, who serves at Duke Chapel as Chapel Carillonneur and Intern for Chapel Music.

Liturgical Acknowledgments | Prayer of Confession. The Worshipbook, published by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). So Bring Him Incense, Gold, and Myrrh (Doxology). Text: William C. Dix, 1837–1898. Music, GREENSLEEVES: English ballad, 16th cent. Public domain.

Today's Flowers | The Advent Wreath is made possible by the Elizabeth Lucina Gotham Memorial Endowment, established by Dr. and Mrs. James H. Semans in loving memory of Elizabeth Gotham. The interior decorations and the wreaths on either side of the front entrance of the Chapel are given to the glory of God in celebration of the Christmas season by Dr. and Mrs. James G. Ferguson, Jr.

Christmas Eve Offering | All of today's cash offerings and checks written to Duke University Chapel will be used to support two local nonprofit and strategic community partners of Duke Chapel: Jubilee Home and Habitat for Humanity of Durham.

Jubilee Home creates supportive housing and therapeutic living for justice-involved persons in Durham. Jubilee Home takes a person-centered approach that sees every resident as a whole person, born with dignity and brilliance inherent to a child of God. Led by a staff of peers, Jubilee Home offers a safe, beautiful, low-barrier home for folk transitioning to independence. By offering non judgemental wrap around support, Jubilee Home imagines a world where we are all better together.

Habitat for Humanity of Durham is part of a global nonprofit housing organization operated on Christian principles that seeks to put God's love into action by building homes, communities, and hope. Habitat for Humanity of Durham is dedicated to eliminating substandard housing locally and globally by constructing, rehabilitating, and preserving homes; by advocating for fair and just housing policies; and by providing training and access to resources to help families improve their shelter conditions.

You can send checks to: Duke University Chapel, Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708-0974. You are invited to give online at chapel.duke.edu/offering.

ENGAGE

Restrooms in Divinity School | Public restrooms are available in the Divinity School. To access them, exit the Chapel through the main front doors, turn to the left, and enter the Divinity School. Restrooms are along the hallway in the Divinity School.

Chapel Flowers | If you would like to honor a loved one and the worshipping community of the Duke Chapel with a gift of flowers to decorate the chancel for Sunday worship, please contact Angela Flynn, coordinator of worship and ministry, at angela.flynn@duke.edu.

Duke Chapel Email Newsletter | The Chapel publishes a weekly newsletter with news about worship services, concerts, special events, and more. Signing up for these email updates is a great way to get more involved in the life of the Chapel: chapel.duke.edu/email.

Holiday Hours | The Chapel is open daily from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. except for Christmas Day and New Year's Day when it is closed and on December 26–31 when it closes at 5:00 p.m. The Chapel also closes to the public for weddings and other private ceremonies, so before planning a visit, please check chapel.duke.edu/events.

Students at Duke Chapel | Students are the Chapel's primary focus and community. The Chapel seeks to serve each student, bridging their faith and learning through individual formation, communal worship, acts of service on campus and in the broader world, and caring support, regardless of their beliefs. Learn about Chapel Scholars, Religious Life groups, Chapel choirs, Student Preacher applications, an alternative spring break trip, the Say the Thing initiative, and more at chapel.duke.edu/students.

Community Ministry | The Chapel stands as a living witness in Durham and beyond. By being a faithful witness to the all-inclusive love of God, the Chapel joins in the important work of respecting the dignity of every human being, especially in the areas of affordable housing, education, and mass incarceration. Learn more at chapel.duke.edu/community.

ENGAGE

Worship at Duke Chapel | Join us in worship that offers stirring preaching, inspiring sacred music, and faithful prayer. Held year-round on Sundays at 11:00 a.m. amid the beautiful, soaring architecture of Duke Chapel, this interdenominational Christian service is characterized by vibrant faith, intellectual depth, diverse cultural expressions, and a welcoming community. Learn more about all of the Chapel's services at chapel.duke.edu/worship.

Epiphany Lessons and Carols | A worship service on Sunday, January 7, at 4:00 p.m. will mark the beginning of the season of Epiphany. Based on the formula made famous by the Christmas Lessons and Carols from King's College, Cambridge, this service follows a similar pattern of readings, choral anthems, and congregational hymns.

Upcoming Concerts | The next concert in the 2023–2024 Chapel Music season will be on Sunday, January 28, at 5:00 p.m., when Nathaniel Gumbs, director of Chapel Music at Yale University, will present a recital on the Flentrop organ. See the full schedule for the season at chapel.duke.edu/music.

Congregational Ministries | The Congregation at Duke University Chapel is the interdenominational church home for people who consider Duke Chapel to be their primary place of worship. Recognizing that the Christian life is more than a Sunday morning experience, members of the Congregation long to deepen their relationships with God, each other, and their neighbors. By providing opportunities for education, service, and fellowship, the Congregation helps participants strengthen these precious relationships. The Congregation welcomes singles, couples, and families who are students, faculty, staff, and community members to join the church to grow together in Christ. To sign up for the Congregation's weekly newsletter, please email congregation@duke.edu.

Sunday Morning Classes | Sunday morning Christian Education classes are available for all ages. These classes are offered from 9:45–10:45 a.m., with coffee and refreshments provided at 9:30 a.m. Classes meet in the lowest level of the Westbrook building. They will resume on Sunday, January 7. New participants are welcome at any time. Please contact congregation@duke.edu for additional information.

ACCESSIBILITY

Hearing assistance units, as well as large-print worship guides and hymnals, are available at the AV console in the rear of the Chapel. There, you can also find directions to download a listen-assist app on your phone. Please let us know if you need other accommodations by approaching a minister or usher, or email us at dukechapel@duke.edu.

LET'S KEEP IN TOUCH

We would like to get to know you. What are your questions? What is your story? Take a moment to fill out a very brief form and a Chapel minister or other staff member will contact you soon. Scan the QR code or visit chapel.duke.edu/connect.
