BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Christmas Eve

Tuesday, December 24, 2024, 5:00 p.m.

Manger, Liz Valente, 2021.

Christmastide (named after the principal celebration of the “Christ Mass”) is the twelve-day festival during which Christians celebrate the birth of the Christ child in Bethlehem over 2,000 years ago. This vulnerable infant, long awaited and yet still a surprise, is the incarnation of God on earth. As we share gifts with our friends and families this season, we seek to capture the joy and wonder of the original gift of Christmas: Jesus Christ, coming into a broken world to dwell among us as the Son of God, our Savior.

MENDELSSOHN
arr. Václav Nelhýbel

*Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Almighty God, who sent a star to guide the magi to the holy child Jesus: we confess that we have not followed the light of your word. We have not searched for signs of your love in the world or trusted good news to be good. We have failed to praise your Son's birth and refused his peace on earth. We have expected little and hoped for less. Forgive our doubt, and renew in us all fine desires, so we may watch, wait, and once more hear the glad story of our Savior, Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

*Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Minister: The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Offertory Anthem

O Holy Night

arr. Stephen DeCesare

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth;
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till He appears and the soul felt its worth.

A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn;
Fall on your knees, oh, hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O holy night, O night divine!

Truly he taught us to love one another;
His law is love, and his gospel is peace.
Chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother,
And in his name all oppression shall cease.

Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
Let all within us praise his holy name.
Christ is the Lord, then ever, ever praise we,
His power and glory ever, evermore proclaim.
His power and glory evermore proclaim.

—John Sullivan Dwight (1813–1893)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

About the Durham Children's Choir | The Durham Children's Choir (DCC) seeks to provide exceptional choral education to children regardless of race, creed, or socio-economic station. Founded in 2004 by Scott Hill, the DCC is currently under the leadership of Artistic Director Dena Byers. The DCC performs music from various cultures and genres at public and private events. The DCC collaborates with local music educators, composers, and arts organizations, including their annual participation in an event celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr. and their performance at the WRAL Tower Lighting ceremony at the American Tobacco Campus. They have performed internationally and nationally, have opened for Grammy Award-winning musician Lauren Daigle, and have also performed in Carnegie Hall. These ventures enable the DCC to have a strong presence in the community and provide the children with invaluable learning opportunities. For more information, please visit their website at durhamchildrenschoir.org. Duke University Chapel has been a supporter of the DCC since its founding.

Today's Flowers | The Advent Wreath is made possible by the Elizabeth Lucina Gotham Memorial Endowment, established by Dr. and Mrs. James H. Semans in loving memory of Elizabeth Gotham. The interior decorations and the wreaths on either side of the front entrance of the Chapel are given to the glory of God in celebration of the Christmas season by Dr. and Mrs. James G.
