BRIDGING FAITH & LEARNING

SERVICE OF WORSHIP
Third Sunday After Pentecost
Sunday, June 9, 2024, 11:00 a.m.

Anglo-Catalan Psalter or The Great Canterbury Psalter, folio 1 recto: Genesis, ca. 1185–1195.

Today's Old Testament and Gospel readings invite us to reflect on relationships with one another and with God. Genesis tells the story of the first humans hiding from God in the garden. When God asks them where they are, the man answers that they are hiding in fear; rather than accepting responsibility for their actions, they cast blame elsewhere. Mark tells the story of Jesus's family trying to restrain him because of accusations against him. Jesus dismisses these false claims and reinterprets what it means to be family by saying, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." Those with whom we pray, dance, and sing today are Jesus's family. With them we go forth in peace to do the will of God.

Prayer of Confession and Words of Assurance | In unison:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry, and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Peace | All exchange signs and words of God's peace.

Minister: The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination | In unison:

O God, grant that by the inspiration of your word, we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding, may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All rise as able

Thanksgiving and Holy Communion

The Lord's Prayer | All are encouraged to pray the Lord's Prayer in the language of their choosing. The text is found on page 895 at the back of the hymnal.

Sharing of the Bread and Wine | All who love Christ, earnestly repent of their sins, and seek to be at peace with God and neighbor are invited to receive Communion. Bread and wine are used for communion. After a server places bread in your hands, you may receive wine by dipping your bread into the chalice. If you desire gluten-free bread or grape juice, or to drink from a common cup, these are available from servers at the front near Memorial Chapel and near the back opposite the attendant's desk. If you will not receive Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

Today's Guest Preacher | The Rev. Dave Allen is the campus minister and executive director of the Wesley Fellowship, Duke's United Methodist campus ministry. An Elder in the North Carolina Annual Conference, Rev. Allen began serving as campus minister in 2016, following five years of local church ministry. He is a graduate of Duke's Trinity College and Divinity School; in 2003, he was selected as the Duke Chapel Student Preacher. Between his undergraduate studies and divinity school, he spent three years working for the Sojourners ministry in Washington, D.C. He brings great enthusiasm for connecting with students and probing questions at the intersection of the Bible and the world. He works to lift up scriptural holiness, social justice, and marginalized voices in order to live into the good news that Jesus Christ has broken down the dividing wall of hostility between us (Ephesians 2:11–22).

Today's Dancers | As Durham celebrates the art of dance in the summer tradition of the American Dance Festival, we welcome dancer Emily Liptow from Duke University Dance Program and Dorita Beh-Eger from the Durham community to our worship this morning. Emily is a Duke University graduate student in dance, originally from Cleveland, Ohio. She builds community and performance-based work around improvisational movement, song, ritual, and intergenerational connection. Her work has been presented at Borderlight Fringe Festival, Maelstrom Collaborative Arts, and Cleveland Public Theatre. Dorita Beh-Eger is originally from New York, where she was the cofounder of Omega Liturgical Dance Company. She continues to provide retreat and workshop leadership in Embodied Prayer and teaches dance in the Durham and larger Triangle community. Today, we rejoice in the gifts that these dancers bring to our worship, as they “praise God’s name with dancing” to the blessing of us all.

Today's Flowers | The flowers for the worship service today are given to the glory of God by the Nancy Hanks Chapel Endowment.

ENGAGE

University Prayer of Thanksgiving | Each week, we focus on a different campus unit, school, or department for whom to give thanks to God for their service and contributions to the wider university community and beyond. Today, we give thanks for the Duke University Dance Program.

Restrooms in Divinity School | Public restrooms are available in the Divinity School. To access them, exit the Chapel through the main front doors and enter the Divinity School. Restrooms are along the hallway in the Divinity School.

Tour After the Service | Learn about the history, architecture, and life of Duke Chapel on a tour immediately following the service. The tour is free and lasts about forty-five minutes. Meet the docent outside in front of the Chapel.

Congregation Annual Business Meeting After Worship | The Congregation at Duke Chapel’s Annual Business Meeting will be held after worship today at 1:00 p.m. in Goodson Chapel. All are welcome to come, hear program reviews from the past year together, and vote on the leadership and budget for next year.

ENGAGE

LGBTQ+ Fellowship Next Sunday | Members of the LGBTQ+ community and allies are invited to attend the monthly fellowship gathering on the third Sunday of each month from 12:30 p.m.–1:30 p.m. in the Chapel kitchen and over Zoom. The next meeting will be next Sunday, June 16. For more information or the Zoom link, please email congregation@duke.edu.

ChorWorks Early Music Performances | In association with Duke Chapel Music, this week the ChorWorks summer program is bringing early-career musicians from across the country to study and perform early music at Duke Chapel. This year's program features the seventeenth-century English composer Henry Purcell, whose musical voice blends French joie-de-vivre, Italian drama, and England's long choral tradition. The ChorWorks singers and musicians will perform in these public concerts and services, which are free and open to the public:

- Friday, June 14, at 7:30 p.m. in Goodson Chapel—A Program of Sacred and Secular Song
- Saturday, June 15, at 7:30 p.m. in Duke Chapel—Music for Court, Church, and Theatre
- Sunday, June 16, at 11:00 a.m. in Duke Chapel—Sunday morning worship service

Sunday Morning Classes | Sunday morning Christian Education classes are available for all ages from 9:45–10:45 a.m., with coffee and refreshments provided at 9:30 a.m. Classes meet in the lowest level of the Westbrook building. New participants are welcome at any time. Please contact congregation@duke.edu for additional information.

Wee Praise: Music and movement for children ages 0–3 with parents or caregivers in 0011 Westbrook

Godly Play: Spiritual formation for children ages 4–1st grade in 0054 Langford

Godly Play Advanced: Spiritual formation for children in 2nd–5th grades in 0050 Langford

Youth Program: 6th–12th graders in 0015 Westbrook

Adult Class: The Sunday morning Adult Summer Study is Faith on the Threshold: Liminality in the Bible. This study will explore Biblical stories to discover how persons learned to follow God and navigate times of transition. It will meet in 0012 Westbrook and over Zoom

ACCESSIBILITY

Hearing assistance units, as well as large-print worship guides and hymnals, are available at the AV console in the rear of the Chapel. There, you can also find directions to download a listen-assist app on your phone. Please let us know if you need other accommodations by approaching a minister or usher, or email us at dukechapel@duke.edu.
