Maundy Thursday marks the beginning of the climax of Holy Week, as Jesus shares his last meal with his friends before he is betrayed. The word “maundy” is said to be derived from the Latin word mandatum, the first word of the Latin phrase, “Mandatum novum do vobis ut diligatis invicem sicut dilexi vos” (“A new commandment I give unto you, that you love one another as I have loved you”). Jesus uses this statement in John’s Gospel to explain the significance of washing the disciples’ feet. Maundy Thursday is also the night that Jesus instituted the Lord’s Supper with the words, “Do this in remembrance of me.” As a way to remember that night, all the worship articles and adornments are removed from the altar. This act symbolizes both the suspension of Holy Communion, which is not celebrated on Good Friday, and the abandonment and humiliation of Jesus Christ.
The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

Amen.*

The minister speaks words of assurance.

Proclamation

Prayer for Illumination (in unison)

God our Father, your Son Jesus Christ was obedient to the end and drank the cup of suffering prepared for him: may we who share his table watch with him through the night of suffering and be faithful. Amen.

Sermon—To Be Washed

Response

Foot Washing
(During the singing of the hymn, the congregation is invited to participate in the act of foot washing in Memorial Chapel. Worshippers are invited to wash the feet of another person and to have their feet washed at one of the foot washing stations in Memorial Chapel. Worshippers will pour water from a pitcher over the feet of another person and into a basin in an act of prayerful service.)

Hymn 605
Wash, O God, Our Sons and Daughters

Anthem
Set Me as a Seal (from A New Creation) René Clausen (b. 1952)
Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm, for love is strong as death. Many waters cannot quench love; neither can the floods drown it.
—Song of Solomon 8:6–7

Congregation Ministries—The Congregation at Duke University Chapel is the interdenominational church home for people who consider Duke Chapel to be their primary place of worship. The Sunday morning service at 11:00 a.m. draws worshipers from all areas of campus as well as from many of our neighboring communities. Recognizing that the Christian life is more than a Sunday morning experience, members of the Congregation long to deepen their relationships with God, with each other, and with their neighbors. Through education, mission, and fellowship the Congregation helps participants to strengthen these precious relationships. The Congregation welcomes singles, couples and families, students, faculty, staff, and community members to join the church to grow together in Christ.
Duke University Chapel

Duke Chapel is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. It is also a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it further acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.
