OPENING PRAYER

*PROCESSIONAL CAROL

Once in Royal David’s City
Henry J. Gauntlett
(Soloist only, stanza 1. All stand and sing stanzas 2-6.)

Once in royal David’s city stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary, loving mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall.
With the poor, the scorned, the lowly, lived on earth our Savior holy.

And through all his wondrous childhood he would honor and obey,
Love and watch the lowly maiden, in whose gentle arms he lay,
Christian children all must be mild, obedient, good as he.

Jesus is our childhood’s pattern; day by day, like us he grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless, tears and smiles like us he knew;
And he feeleth for our sadness, and he shareth in our gladness.
And our eyes at last shall see him through his own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heaven above;
And he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.

Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high;
Where like stars his children crowned all in white shall wait around.

Choir Anthem (congregation seated)

All My Heart Again Rejoices
David Cherwien
(b. 1957)

Noel! Sing Gloria!

All my heart again rejoices
As I hear, far and near
(Rejoice, my heart, rejoice!),
Sweetest angel voices;
“Christ is born,” their choirs are singing,
Till the air ev’rywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

Come, then, let us hasten yonder;
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder;
Love him who with love is yearning;
Hail the star that from far
Bright with hope is burning!

Noel! Sing Gloria!

First Lesson—Genesis 3:8-19
(OT page 3 in the pew Bible. At the close of each lesson, the lector will say, “This is the word of the Lord.” The Congregation responds, “Thanks be to God.”)

God tells sinful Adam that he has lost the life of Paradise and that his seed will bruise the serpent’s head.

Read by the Rev. Dr. Willie Jennings
Associate Professor of Theology and Black Church Studies, Duke Divinity School

Choir Anthem (congregation seated)

The Lord at First Did Adam Make
Traditional English Carol
arr. David Willcocks
(b. 1919)

The Lord at first did Adam make out of the dust and clay,
And in his nostril breathed life e’en as the scriptures say.
And then in Eden’s paradise he placed him to dwell,
That he within it should remain, to dress and keep it well.

Now let good Christians all begin an holy life to live,
And to rejoice and merry be, for this is Christmas Eve.
And thus within the garden he was set therein to stay;
And in commandment unto him these words the Lord did say:
“The fruit which in the garden grows to thee shall be for meat,
Except the tree in the midst thereof, of which thou shalt not eat.”

“For in the day thou shalt it touch or dost to it come nigh,
If so thou do but eat thereof then thou shalt surely die.”
But Adam he did take no heed unto that only thing,
But did transgress God’s holy law, and so was wrapt in sin.

Now mark the goodness of the Lord, which he for mankind bore;
His mercy soon he did extend, lost man for to restore;
And then, for to redeem our souls from death and hellish thrall,
He said his own dear Son should be the Savior of us all.

SECOND LESSON—Genesis 22:15-18 (OT page 17)

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

Read by Ms. Emi Miller
Co-President of the Congregation at Duke Chapel Youth Council

*CONGREGATIONAL CAROL (congregation standing)
It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

Richard Storrs Willis

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
“Peace on the earth, goodwill to all,
From heaven’s all-gracious king.”
The world in solemn stillness lay,
To hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O’er all the weary world;
Above its sad and lowly plains,
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o’er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

And ye, beneath life’s crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low;
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing.
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!
For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years
Shall come the time foretold
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

—Edmund H. Sears

THIRD LESSON—Isaiah 9:2, 6-7 (OT page 600)

The peace that Christ will bring is foreshadowed.

Read by Dr. David Arcus
Chapel Organist and Associate University Organist

CHOIR ANTHEMS (congregation seated)

Comfort, Comfort Ye My People

Louis Bourgeois
(c. 1510-1559)

Comfort, comfort ye my people,
Speak ye peace, thus saith our God;
Comfort those who sit in darkness
Mourning 'neath their sorrows’ load.
Speak ye to Jerusalem
Of the peace that waits for them;
Tell her that her sins I cover,
And her warfare now is over.

Hark, the voice of one that crieth
In the desert far and near,
Calling us to true repentance
Since the kingdom now is here.
Oh, that warning cry obey!
Now prepare for God a way;
Let the valleys rise to meet him
And the hills bow down to greet him.

Morning Star

Arr. Virgil Thomson
(1896-1989)

How splendid shines the morning star,
God’s gracious light from darkness far,
The root of Jesse blessed.

Thou David’s son of Jacob’s stem.
My bridegroom, king, and wondrous Lamb,
Thou hast my heart possessed.

Sweetly, friendly, O thou handsome, precious ransom,
Full of graces, set and kept in heavenly places.
FOURTH LESSON—Isaiah 11:1-4a, 6-9 (OT page 602)

Christ’s birth and kingdom are foretold by Isaiah.

Read by Dr. Karla Holloway
James B. Duke Professor of English, Professor of Law, and Professor of African and African American Studies

CONGREGATIONAL CAROL (congregation seated)
O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.
For Christ is born of Mary, and gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars together, proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King, and peace to all on earth!
How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.
O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel!

The angel Gabriel salutes the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Read by Sister Joanna Walsh
Member of the Society of Sisters, Faithful Companions of Jesus
Spiritual Director, and Visiting Lecturer at Duke Divinity School

CHOIR ANTHEM (congregation seated)
A Maid’s Lullaby

Lai-lahdle-lo: with stars all aglow
A pure maid will sing to her young infant King.
Life gathers ’round with nary a sound
Except for a cry and maid’s lullaby.

“Israel’s sweet release in your dreams you hold,
Sleep in princely peace; let your dreams unfold.
Emmanuel, your fate who can tell:
A life without ill, or a cross on a hill?
Agents of hate for you they will wait.
But now all you know is a lai-lahdle-lo.”
Angels sing on high, shepherds quake below;
Mortals far and nigh to the manger go, they go.
Come, gather ’round with nary a sound
Except for a cry and maid’s lullaby.
Lai-lahdle-lo: with stars all aglow
A pure maid will sing to her young infant King.

—text by Robin and David Arcus

Sixth Lesson—Luke 2:1-7 (NT page 54)

Read by Mr. Steve Hinkle
Campus Minister, InterVarsity Graduate and Faculty Ministries

Congregational Carol (congregation seated)
Silent Night
Stille Nacht
Franz Gruber

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and child. Holy infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight;
Glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing Alleluia!
Christ the Savior is born, Christ the Savior is born!

Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love’s pure light
Radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

—Joseph Mohr

Seventh Lesson—Luke 2:8-17 (NT pages 54-55)

The shepherds go to the manger.

Read by Dr. Li-Chen Chin
Director of Intercultural Programs

Choir Anthem (congregation seated)
Quelle est cette odeur agréable
Traditional French Carol
arr. Willcocks

Quelle est cette odeur agréable, bergers, qui ravit tous nos sens?
S’exhale-t-il rien de semblable au milieu des fleurs du printemps?

Mais quelle éclatante lumière dans la nuit vient frapper nos yeux!
L’astre du jour, dans sa carrière, fût-il jamais si radieux?

A Bethléem dans une crèche il vient de vous naître un Sauveur;
Allons, que rien ne vous empêche d’adorer votre Rédempteur.

Dieu tout puissant, gloire éternelle vous soit rendue jusqu’aux cieux,
Que la paix soit universelle, que la grâce abonde en tous lieux.
What is this pleasant fragrance, shepherds, which delights our senses?
Is nothing similar breathed amidst the flowers of spring?

But what bursting light comes in the night to strike our eyes!
The star of daytime, in its course, was it ever so radiant?

In Bethlehem, in a manger, there is born to you a Savior;
Go, let nothing prevent you from worshiping your redeemer.

God almighty, eternal glory be rendered to you in heaven,
That peace may be universal, that grace may abound everywhere.

Eighth Lesson—Matthew 2:1-12 (NT pages 1-2)

The wise men are led by the star to Jesus.

Read by Mr. Allen Jones
Associate Pastor, Antioch Baptist Church

*Congregational Carol (congregation standing)
The First Noel

The first Noel, the angels did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter’s night that was so deep.

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel!

They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the east, beyond them far;
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.

And by the light of that same star
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went.

This star drew nigh to the northwest,
O’er Bethlehem it took its rest;
And there it did both stop and stay,
Right over the place where Jesus lay.

Then entered in those wise men three,
Full reverently upon the knee,
And offered there, in his presence,
Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.
*Ninth Lesson—John 1:1-14 (NT page 86, congregation standing)

St. John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation.

Read by Ms. Kristen Westfall
Trinity ’14, PathWays Chapel Scholar

*Choir Anthem
Hallelujah (from Messiah) George Frederic Handel (1685-1759)

Hallelujah: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever, King of kings and Lord of lords.

—Revelation 19:6; 11:15; 19:16

*The Recessional Carol (congregation standing) ADESTE FIDELES

O Come, All Ye Faithful John Wade

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem.
Come and behold him, born the King of angels;

O come, let us adore him. O come, let us adore him.
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

True God of true God, Light from Light Eternal.
Lo, he shuns not the Virgin’s womb;
Son of the Father, begotten, not created;

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation;
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, all glory in the highest;

See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle,
Leaving their flocks, draw nigh to gaze;
We too will thither bend our joyful footsteps;

Child, for us sinners poor and in the manger,
We would embrace thee with love and awe.
Who would not love thee, loving us so dearly?

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning,
Jesus, to thee be all glory given.

Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing;

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ABOUT THE SERVICE—In 1969, Christmas Eve at Duke University Chapel was celebrated for the first time with music and candlelight. For this forty-fifth service, the decorations and music for the Chapel are given to the glory of God in memory of Dr. James T. Cleland and Mr. J. Benjamin Smith, the founders of this service, by Dr. and Mrs. James G. Ferguson, Jr.

CHRISTMAS EVE OFFERING AND PHOTOS ADORNING THE CHAPEL—Each year during the Christmas season, photographs depicting the work of Family Health Ministries hang in the Chapel. As part of the Chapel’s decade-long commitment to building relationships with the people of Haiti, the Christmas Eve offerings will go, for the tenth consecutive year, to Family Health Ministries (FHM). FHM is a nonprofit agency, founded by Duke professors Dr. David and Kathy Walmer, which provides medical care and support to the people of Haiti. Since 2004, the Congregation’s work with FHM has included building the Blanchard Health clinic, and the Nancy Ferree-Clark Guesthouse named in honor of the former Congregation pastor. These offerings provide most of the clinic’s annual operating support. Ongoing funding is crucial to continue to address the unmet needs of access to affordable healthcare, health education, and disease prevention. To donate online, go to www.familyhm.org.

GOODBYE TO DAVID ARCUS—Tonight marks the final worship services played by the Chapel Organist David Arcus. David has made an extraordinary contribution to the musical and worship life of the Chapel in the more than 25 years he has been here, and it has been an immeasurable gift to have him as a colleague. With deep gratitude, the Chapel community celebrates the many gifts that David has shared with us and wishes only the best for him and his wife Robin in the next stage of their life together. David will be playing a final organ recital on January 26, at 5:00 p.m.
