Service of Worship

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

July 22, 2012

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

A Shepherd in Romania, 2005.

How deep is the love of God? In the lesson from Jeremiah, God speaks words of hope to those who have been led astray. God assures that he will gather the flock back to a sheepfold of safety and abundance. The gospel lesson from Mark reveals the compassion of God. While Jesus invites his disciples to get away from the crowds, they find themselves surrounded by helpless and sick people. Scripture says Jesus “had compassion for them, because they were like a sheep without a shepherd,” and all who approach him receive both physical and spiritual attention.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for summer camps and other summer programs of the University. We celebrate how these programs encourage and train young people in both athletic and intellectual pursuits. The ushers bring a summer camp t-shirt to the altar.

In Durham we remember the Durham Police Department and its mission to partner with citizens in safeguarding the community, especially through the efforts of Partners Against Crime in each district. The ushers bring forward a map of the five police districts in the city of Durham.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. If you would prefer to receive grape juice, it is available upon request at the communion station near the main entrance of the Chapel, on the pulpit side. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

The king of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine forever.
Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth.
And, where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.
And so through all the length of days, thy goodness faileth never.
Good shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.
