

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Third Sunday in Lent
March 27, 2011
Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

A view from atop Mt. Sinai.

For what do you thirst? The scripture lessons today draw us deeper into Lent by prodding us to consider this question. In Exodus, the Israelites face the terror of the desert and its deprivation of water. They take their anger out on Moses, who reveals God's provision when he strikes the rock at Horeb and water bursts forth. The story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman in John's gospel also takes place near a water source. The woman comes looking for physical water but departs having encountered Jesus, the living water, who calls her to drink from the well of eternal life.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Duke University School of Law. We celebrate its dedication to training students to be servants of local and global communities through their passion for the law and their pursuit of justice. The ushers bring a gavel to the altar.

In Durham, we remember youth who live in the midst of challenging circumstances and disadvantage, and we pray for those who work with them. A young person brings forward a yearbook.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting D, on page 23 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church. If you have a gluten allergy, those serving communion nearest to the Memorial Chapel will be ready to serve you gluten-free wafers and wine on request. You may also come forward to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used for the Chapel Development Fund, which is the primary source of contributed funds for building care and preservation. The Chapel fulfills James B. Duke's desire that the building exert a profound influence on the lives of the young women and men who attend the university.

MENDELSSOHN'S ST. PAUL—On Sunday, April 3, at 4:00 p.m., in Duke Chapel the Duke Chapel Choir and Duke Chorale will present Mendelssohn's grand oratorio St. Paul, based on the life of the apostle. The choirs will be joined by professional soloists and orchestra. Rodney Wynkoop will conduct. Tickets cost $15 for adults and are free to the first 300 Duke students. Tickets may be purchased at www.tickets.duke.edu or by calling 684-4444.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just inside the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on the Chapel's website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS—The stations of the cross hanging in Duke Chapel this Lenten season were created by Haitian artist John Silvestri using recycled materials. The pieces are made from discarded steel oil drums by scrubbing off the paint, slitting them down the side, and hammering them flat. A chisel and wooden mallet are then used to cut out the design templates, and finally the pieces are textured with an ice pick or awl. These works of art allow us to see the suffering of our Lord through the lenses of our Haitian sisters and brothers.

VESPERS ENSEMBLE SPRING CONCERT—On Saturday, April 16, at 8:00 p.m., in Duke Chapel the Duke Vespers Ensemble will present their spring concert: Beata progenies. This hour-long concert will feature the music of English renaissance and 20th century composers. Allan Friedman will conduct. Free admission.
